NO. 27—SIXTY-SECOND YEAR | VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 1920. | TWENTY PAGES

VOTE FOR BRIDGE BY-LAW AND VICTORIA'S PROGRESS

ITALIANS AGREE TO SUGGESTED SCHEME RESPECTING FIUME

Proposal Has Now Been Submitted to Jugo-Slav Representatives, Who Are in Consultation With Authorities at Belgrade—Settlement of Dispute Is Expected.

REPORTS ARE TAKEN TO INDICATE ITALIAN EVACUATION OF DALMATIA

PARIS, Jan. 14.—The project for an agreement on the Adriatic question has been accepted by Italy. It has also been handed to the Jugo-Slavs, who have forwarded the text by telegraph to Belgrade. A reply is expected by Friday.

Recently the Prime Ministers of Great Britain, France and Italy have been in conference, endeavoring to settle satisfactorily the tangled Adriatic issue. A report on January 10 said the project of bringing about direct negotiations between Italy and Jugo-Slavia was proceeding favorably.

It is said the Slovenes have objected to the Italian proposal that Fiume be a free city with its territory extending to the present Italian frontier.

BELGRADE, Jan. 11.—Italian troops are apparently evacuating the Dalmatian coast, according to a semi-official statement. It is said a number of troops embarked on January 5 at Sebenico for Italy. Since that time there has been a great concentration of soldiers and equipment at that port, and it is rumored the Italians will soon sail for their native country.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—A United States warship has anchored off Pola, the former Austrian naval base in the Adriatic, according to advices received here today.

BELGRADE, Jan. 14.—It is believed that the United States warship off Pola is going to Fiume, where it is said she will be joined by Allied vessels, which will land men to replace Italian troops, as soon as a decision is reached at Paris regarding the future status of that city.

CIVIC ELECTION TAKES PLACE TODAY

Many Issues to Be Decided by Voters—Bridge By-Law Is Centre of Interest—Returning Officers Named.

Not since the ward system was abolished a good many years ago have the ratepayers of Victoria had so many things to vote on as is the case today. Polling commences this morning at 9 o'clock in the Market Building, and the booths will be closed at 7 p.m.

There are ten aldermen to be elected, four school trustees and one police commissioner.

There are two money by-laws to be voted upon, the Johnson Street bridge by-law and the municipal golf links by-law.

Then there is to be a referendum to be taken to determine whether or not the system of proportional representation shall be adopted at future municipal elections; also, a plebiscite to give the electors an opportunity of expressing their opinion as to the most desirable form of civic government.

Bridge Big Issue

While there is no mayoralty contest this year, Mayor Porter being returned in the absence of opposition to serve a second term, the election will not be without special interest to the community. While the election will be without the usual excitement produced by a battle for the mayoralty, it is generally felt that the Johnson Street bridge by-law, which has been a live municipal issue for ten or more years, will compensate for this. The last-minute opposition to the by-law led by Mr. A. E. Todd, who when Mayor failed to reach an agreement on the project, but who still contends that he should have an opportunity of driving a better bargain than has been secured by the 1919 Council, has added considerably to the interest surrounding the question. Those who have closely followed the trend of opinion during the past few days claim that the bridge by-law will pass, and they are inclined to treat lightly the possibility that Mr. Todd's tactics will have much effect on the vote.

Supporters of the municipal golf links project are similarly optimistic. An energetic canvass has been made of the city by them, with the result that strong endorsement of the by-law is evident.

Seventeen For Council

There are seventeen candidates in the field for places on the City Council. Ten are to be elected. Those who are running are: Edwyn Brenton Andros, William George Cameron, Watson A. Clark, Robert A. Dewar, Robert Dinsdale, W. F. Fullerton, Mary Gertrude Graves, John Harvey, Albion Johns, Joseph Patrick, George Sangster, W. J. Sargent, Joseph Ivan Seabrook, James Arthur Shanks, Christian Siverts, Albert Edward Todd, Eugene Sidney Woodward. Of the first twelve mentioned all but Mrs. Graves and Mr. Dewar are members of the 1919 Council, who seek re-election. Mrs. Graves is the lone nominee of the women's organizations. The Trades and Labor Council ticket consists of Messrs. Woodward, Dewar and Siverts, while Mr. Shanks is running on an

C. N. R. EXPANSION HINGES ON BRIDGE

Expenditure of $800,000 on Terminal Works Jeopardized if By-Law Is Defeated—Curvature Is Essential.

If the Johnson Street bridge by-law is defeated today, development of the Canadian National Railway terminals on the Songhee Reserve area will probably be halted and expenditure of about $800,000 by the company withheld, it was learned yesterday.

"If the by-law fails to carry, it will be a severe blow to the Canadian National system and a blow that will have a serious effect on the whole community," said a prominent official of the company last night. "If the voters turn the by-law down, it would mean that the C.N.R. has no place to do business in Victoria, and that there is no reason to proceed with development work in the near future. Just at present, the company is marking time, waiting to know what the people do with the Johnson Street bridge by-law. If it is approved, the last obstacle will be removed and the company will be able to proceed."

It was learned that the Canadian National Railway intends to spend $800,000 on terminal facilities in Victoria. When it is pointed out that so far only about $22,000 has been spent on the grading, it will be appreciated how far the total sum allocated will go towards the building up of the industrial area.

Provides Direct Access

With the Johnson Street bridge built, the Canadian National will be provided with direct access to the city. Without it, the plans of the company for connection with the business section of Victoria are completely tied up. If the Dominion Government takes over the Grand Trunk Pacific and merges it with the C.N.R., the two systems will be separated unless the bridge is built. This would lead to endless inconveniences and greatly increased cost of operation.

If the bridge by-law is turned down, it is pointed out, the C.P.R. probably would secure an order from the Board of Railway Commissioners to erect their own bridge. The C.P.R. would then probably bring over the second-hand Red River bridge now at Coquitlam and put it up at a cost of $80,000. Supporters of the Johnson Street bridge assert the fact that if the joint bridge is not built the C.P.R. will be $80,000 in pocket—its contribution to the joint bridge being $100,000—should be sufficient proof that the by-law is in no sense "a gift" to the C.P.R. The Red River bridge would make no provision for vehicular traffic, and even pedestrian traffic might be restricted.

Connection between the C.N.R. tracks and the Outer Docks by way of the B.C. Electric rails would also be made impossible were the by-law to be defeated.

Railway officials explain that the curvature in the bridge plans, so severely criticised by opponents of the bridge, is absolutely necessary unless the city is to be put to much greater expense. In order to straighten out the curvature it would be necessary to purchase additional property. Under the present plan it is necessary to secure only one lot.

WILL SEND CARS OUT FOR BY-LAW VOTERS

Public organizations supporting the Johnson Street Bridge and Municipal Golf Links by-laws have appointed a transportation committee which will arrange to send cars out to carry voters to the polling stations. Anyone wishing to take advantage of this service may call telephone No. 6826. Headquarters of the committee have been established at Terry's Drug Store, corner of Pandora Avenue and Douglas Street.

STRONG RADIUM ORE FOUND IN ONTARIO

PARRY SOUND, Ont., Jan. 14.—The report is current here that pitchblende ore strongly impregnated with radium has been found near Kearney, seven miles east of Scotia Junction, on the Parry Sound-Ottawa division of the Grand Trunk Railway. The ore is said to have been tested by a New York expert, and is stated to be so powerful that a number of photographic plates in his studio were spoiled by being left in close proximity to specimens of the rock.

FIND NO TRACE OF SURVIVORS

Vessels Passing Scene of Afrique Wreck See Only Bodies of Victims—Tempest Continues In Bay.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—The tempest in the Bay of Biscay which caused the sinking of the steamer Afrique was continuing unabated today, the storm area extending well into the Atlantic.

The Belgian steamer Serbia has been abandoned by her crew and is reported sinking near the northern part of the bay.

(No Belgian steamer Serbia is listed, the Belgian steamer Serbier, a wooden vessel of 1,434 tons net, may be meant.)

The French cruiser Dessix, which was expected to sail from L'Orient, was obliged to postpone her departure because of the storm.

PLYMOUTH, England, Jan. 14.—The steamer Anverville reports having passed in the Bay of Biscay one of the lifeboats of the steamer Afrique. The boat was empty, the sails, masts and oars were lashed in their usual positions. The Anverville searched the vicinity, but found no wreckage and no survivors.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—The tug Hippopotamus, which had been searching the scene of the Afrique's sinking sent a wireless today reporting that a vast mass of wreckage and many lifebelts have been found, as well as one lifeboat with ten dead persons in it.

LA ROCHELLE, France, Jan. 14.—More than four hundred persons are believed to have lost their lives in the wreck of the steamer Afrique. Only 57 survivors are known to have been landed. Hope for the rest of the passengers and crew faded during the night, as hour after hour passed without any tidings, and 72 hours after the vessel foundered, many feared one of the greatest marine tragedies of modern times was enacted off the coast before dawn Sunday morning.

BOARD OF COMMERCE SEEKS COURT OPINION

OTTAWA, Jan. 14.—The Board of Commerce has asked the opinion of the supreme court as to its powers to administer the combines and fair prices act, as conferred on it by parliament. The reference to the supreme court is the result of certain interests challenging the right of the board to interfere with its business. The Crescent Creamery Company, of Winnipeg, for example, has questioned the right of the board to interfere with business which has its origin and scope within a single province.

TRADE IS TURNING TO GREAT BRITAIN

WINNIPEG, Jan. 14.—In a dispatch from its Ottawa correspondent The Telegram says:

"The feature of the trade returns for November is that imports from the United States for the month show a decrease of $1,500,000 as compared with October, while those from Great Britain show an increase of about $1,200,000. The exports show to the States a decline of approximately $6,000,000 as compared with October, while those to the United Kingdom show an increase of $5,600,000.

"The increase to the latter country is undoubtedly due to shipments of wheat hurried out before the close of navigation.

"For the first eight months of the present fiscal year exports to the United States declined $7,500,000 and imports declined $23,500,000. To the United Kingdom for the same period exports declined $36,000,000, while imports increased $11,500,000."

Saxony's Expenditure

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—Saxony paid out 275,000,000 marks in increased living allowances to state employees and pensioners in 1919, exclusive of increases in wages. The total state budget amounted to 500,000,000 marks.

LETTISH ARMY CUTS RAILWAY

Bolsheviki Forces at Rzezytsa Are Separated From Northern Front and Confined to One Line of Retreat.

ONE BATTALION IS ANNIHILATED

American Troops Have Clash With Armored Train of General Semenoff, East of Lake Baikal.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—A dispatch from Riga, under date of Jan. 13, received by the Lettish legation here, says that through the capture of Korsovka the railway between Dvinsk and Pskov was cut. The Bolsheviki at Rzezytsa were thoroughly separated from their northern front, leaving Rzezytsa, on the Moscow Railway, the only avenue of retreat for the Soviet forces.

With troops from the Esthonian front, the telegram states, the Bolsheviki attacked the Letvians, but were repulsed. In two days of fighting the Letts wiped out the First Petrograd Cummunist Battalion, capturing a brigade commissary and its commander, together with several hundred prisoners.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Two Americans were killed and three wounded in a clash with an armored train of General Semenoff, commander-in-chief of the All-Russian army, between Lake Baikal and Vorkhneudinsk, in the Province of Trans-Baikalia, according to the correspondent of The Daily Mail at Harbin. The Americans were reported to have captured the train.

Details of the brush between the Americans and the Semenoff forces are unavailable.

Other clashes are reported between the Czecho-Slovaks and Semenoff's troops. A Moscow wireless dispatch says the majority of the Cossacks in the Amur region, and also the Buriats and the Kirghises of the Trans-Baikal region, have revolted against the massacres of General Semenoff and repudiated his representatives.

SOME SOLDIERS ARE HELPED HOME

Acting Minister of Militia States Case in Regard to Canadians Who Took Discharge in England.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 14.—Questioned as to a report that provision was being made for bringing back to Canada some 2,000 Canadians who had taken their discharge in England and were now in straitened circumstances, Hon. J. A. Calder, Minister of Immigration and Colonization, and who is also acting Minister of Militia, stated this evening that no such wholesale action was being taken.

Members of the C.E.F. who were discharged in England, he said, had entered into an undertaking that there was to be no further provision for their repatriation, but it was now found that many of them were in serious circumstances.

Each individual case is being considered on its own merits, but where it is thought that a man would be better repatriated, he is being brought to Canada.

The Minister could make no estimate as to the number who would be brought across in this manner.

PERJURY CASE SENT TO HIGHER COURT

VANCOUVER, Jan. 14.—When I. I. Rubinowitz, conducting the private prosecution of A. Durasoff and Barney Roth, charged with perjury, had concluded the submission of evidence against the accused, Magistrate Shaw unexpectedly decided to go no further, stating that he would commit the two men for trial in a higher court on Monday morning next.

The two accused secured evidence on which fourteen Russians were held for deportation, and subsequently three of the Russians laid charges of perjury against them.

Magistrate Shaw remarked that the case had turned out to be one of public importance. It has been proceeding for some months, having been frequently adjourned.

MANITOBA VETERANS URGE EXPENDITURE

WINNIPEG, Jan. 14.—A resolution urging the Federal Government to set aside an appropriation of $200,000,000 for the purpose of carrying out a reconstruction policy and for the re-establishment of returned soldiers under the Great War Veterans' Association re-establishment plan was adopted by the Manitoba command of the Great War Veterans' Association today.

The scheme suggested in the resolution includes a comprehensive system of development of the natural resources of the Dominion.

MUCH BLOOD SHED AS BERLIN POLICE FIGHT ASSAILANTS

Estimates of Number Killed Vary From 30 to 42, and Roll of Wounded Is Placed at About 100—Evidence Taken to Show That Guards Were Forced to Fire

RADICALS CHARGED WITH INCITEMENT

Members of Assembly Are Accused of Having Signalled to Mob to Storm Building—More Conservative Elements Appeal for Cessation of Disorder—Inadequate Precautions

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Reuter's Berlin correspondent, under date of Wednesday, says it is semi-officially announced, and seems to be finally established, that 42 persons were killed and 105 wounded in the Reichstag fighting.

The police finally were compelled to throw bombs among the rioters, causing a panic, in which many persons, including women, were trampled under foot.

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—The estimate of the Berlin papers of the casualties in the rioting places the dead in excess of 30 and the wounded at 100. Quiet prevailed during the night, when the street patrols were heavily reinforced.

Premier Bauer created a sensation in the Assembly today when he declared that witnesses were available to prove that Independent members of the Assembly went to the west window of the Reichstag and motioned to the mob to come on.

The Prussian Minister of the Interior, Dr. Heine, specifically charged that Louisa Zeetz and Friedrich Zuebeil, two of the most obstreperous Independent deputies, went to the south entrance of the Reichstag and beckoned to the mob to enter there.

Minister of Defence Noske has prohibited the sale of Die Freiheit and The Red Flag through the territory where a state of siege has been proclaimed.

Chancellor's Charge

LONDON, Jan. 14.—A Berlin wireless dispatch under date of Wednesday says that Dr. Karl Heine, Prussian Minister of the Interior, speaking in the Assembly today on Tuesday's disorders, assumed full responsibility for the protective measures adopted and accused the Independents of having incited the masses to disorder. The speech was noisily interrupted by the Independents.

Chancellor Bauer said:

"I regard it as my duty to express in the name of the Government my thanks to the safety police. They opened fire only after they had been attacked by criminal elements in the crowd and some brutally maltreated and killed with their own arms. Signals were given to storm the Reichstag building by the Independents waving their handkerchiefs. Had the mob succeeded in penetrating the building a second St. Bartholemew's night would have ensued."

Social Democrats' Appeal

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—The Social Democratic party has issued an appeal for its members not to allow themselves to be provoked by independent and communist "wire pullers," who are "directly responsible for the bloodshed and want to continue playing an unscrupulous game with human lives."

The appeal asked whether the workers will permit national representatives to be placed under terrorism, and tells them that the German nation can be saved from complete destruction only by work.

Conservative citizens of Berlin call for government measures to prevent further riots, especially those dreaded in connection with the celebration on Thursday of the anniversary of the death of Dr. Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg.

Vorwaerts editorially declares that, according to all reports, the police showed the utmost patience in the rioting of Tuesday and did not fire until ten policemen had been severely wounded. It points out that Dr. Heine, Prussian Minister of the Interior and Chief of Police Ernst, personally controlled the police and

EGYPTIANS SHOW MORE OPPOSITION TO INVESTIGATORS

CAIRO, Jan. 14.—Opposition to the Milner commission, now in Egypt, in an attempt at conciliation, is given indications of growth, due chiefly, it is said by some close observers of developments, to the influence of Said Zagloul Pasha, the Minister of Justice.

The Nationalists have forwarded a communique to Viscount Milner, British Secretary for the Colonies, and head of the mission, declaring that his proclamation issued recently can not be regarded as a basis of negotiation, while the vernacular press has swung in a hostile direction.

Cairo is in semi-darkness owing to the men employed in the gas service striking, on account, they declare, of the transfer of an old employee from one department to another.

LIBERAL LEADER VISITS ISLAND

Hon. Mr. King Is Warmly Welcomed by Prince Edward People—Speaks for Stability and Unity.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., Jan. 14.—In the double capacity of leader of the Liberal party and representative by acclamation of the constituency of Prince, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King had a strenuous time at the hands of demonstrative, enthusiastic and hospitable Prince Edward Islanders during his present visit. The reception tendered him last October on his first visit to Summerside was repeated on his present tour. Tonight he addressed two crowded meetings in the Prince Edward and Strand Theatres in this city, where he appeared for the first time, speaking with much vigor.

His speeches in the main, apart from his special references to conditions in this Province, were along the lines of those delivered at Newmarket and Halifax. He rang the changes on stability and unity as the greatest need of Canada and on Liberalism as the solution of the problems confronting Canada. He was frequently interrupted by applause and at the close was greeted with prolonged cheers.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—The Supreme Council, says The Temps, has decided to recognize the independence of Armenia, Georgia and Azerbaijan.

Germany Has Grievance

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—Germany has asked the Federal Council of Switzerland to make representations to the British Government as to propaganda in favor of Poland, which is reported in progress among German prisoners in England.

Turkish Chamber Adjourns

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The Turkish Chamber of Deputies, unable to obtain a quorum at the opening sessions Monday, adjourned sine die, according to a Constantinople dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co.

Red Writings Show Mental Derangement

Comment of Chief Justice of Manitoba on Publications Cited in Russell Appeal Case—One Document Described as Treasonable—Only One Point in Reserved Case Left

WINNIPEG, Jan. 14.—"It seems to me that any men who would write that sort of stuff in Canada are subject to mental derangement," said Chief Justice Perdue today after numerous publications involved in the application for a retrial of R. B. Russell, convicted strike leader, had been perused.

On perusal of another document the Chief Justice remarked that it was treasonable.

A. J. Andrews, senior crown counsel, argued for admissibility of evidence given at the trial. There were two divisions of Socialists, he said, a right and a left wing. One sought to gain ideals by evolution, while the other, to which Russell belonged, favored revolution.

The appeal on the reserved case was practically brought to a conclusion at the session this afternoon, there remaining only one point to be argued at the session tomorrow. Isaac Pitblado, K.C., dealt in detail with the admission of the documentary evidence in the Russell trial, citing authorities too numerous to mention in support of the action of Mr. Justice Metcalfe in ruling that this evidence should be admitted. The next point to be taken up was as to whether it was proper to show the recent Winnipeg general strike to be illegal during the trial. W. A. T. Sweatman, one of the crown counsel, is arguing this point and will complete it tomorrow morning. He produced voluminous authorities to support his argument that a sympathetic strike was illegal because it brought men out on strike who had no dispute.

The conviction of Russell will be carried to the Supreme Court of Canada if the Manitoba Court of Appeal refuses a new trial, and if even one of the Manitoba judges gives a dissenting opinion, the strike leader's defense committee announces. One dissenting voice would justify an appeal, says James Law, secretary. Five thousand copies of Mr. Justice Metcalfe's address to the jury on the Russell case are to be distributed among labor men and the general public, accompanied by an explanation of the circumstances which led to Russell's arrest. John Farnell, returned soldier) implicated in the strike riots here, is to be tried before the next assizes, a true bill having been returned at the last assize, but the case being held over until disposal of the Russell case. During the strike, Farnell was elected speaker of the "soldiers' parliament."

NAME DESCHANEL FOR PRESIDENT

Sudden Move by Socialist Group in French Chamber Gives Prospect of Competition With Clemenceau.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—Paul Deschanel was suddenly thrust forward as a candidate for the presidency of the republic in the Chamber last night, seemingly by spontaneous impulse on the part of members of the Radical Socialist group.

The candidacy of M. Deschanel promises to liven up the congress of Versailles, which will meet Saturday to elect a president.

Immediately after M. Deschanel was re-elected president of the Chamber some 150 to 200 deputies, led by former Premier Briand, Edouard Herrot, Camille Lenoir and Andre Lefevre, shouted, "Now to Versailles."

M. Deschanel said last night he would accept the candidacy if designated by the caucus of republican and socialist groups of both houses called for Thursday.

M. Deschanel's acceptance is expected to force Premier Clemenceau to announce whether or not he is a candidate, owing to the precedent created by M. Clemenceau himself in 1912, when he called upon M. Poincare and informed him that Jules Pams had been chosen as candidate by the republicans.

Leon Bourgeois was elected president of the Senate by that body on the third ballot taken today for the choice of a presiding officer. He received 147 votes as against 138 for Antonin Dubost, the retiring president of the Senate.

Capt. Whittaker Retires

VANCOUVER, Jan. 14.—Capt. C. W. Whittaker, president of the local and also of the Provincial command of the Great War Veterans' Association, today definitely announced his retirement from the former office. He will still continue in his office as provincial president until the June elections.

LIVES ARE LOST IN BERLIN RIOT

Members of Mob Endeavoring to Force Way Into Reichstag Are Cut Down by Fire of Guards.

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—Many persons were killed and wounded in a melee by the members of a mob and police guards in front of the Reichstag building here yesterday afternoon.

The mob, organized by extremists against the industrial councils bill now before the Reichstag, began to gather in the morning. By noon every street leading to the Tiergarten was crowded with masses of people carrying red flags and placards.

Anticipating a demonstration before the Reichstag building, the authorities had surrounded the building with public security guards and machine gunners, who barred all approaches. As time passed the crowd was joined by striking tram employees, and soon inflammatory speeches were begun by agitators.

When the Reichstag convened at 3 o'clock, the crowd surrounding the building was estimated at 40,000, and new delegations of working people carrying red flags and banners inscribed with the words, "All power to the soviet," continued to arrive. Troop reinforcements in huge motor trucks were added to the guards on duty, but only one arrest had been made since noon.

Mob Makes Rush

Attempts made by the guards to quietly disperse the crowds were unheeded. At last the mob made a rush against the police lines, trying to disarm the guards and disable the machine guns. When it was seen the mob could not be checked in any other way, fire was opened on it. The shooting was at close range, and the front of the building was littered with dead and wounded. Order was soon restored.

The Reichstag continued its sitting until 5 o'clock, at which time it was announced that ten bodies of persons killed in the fight had been brought into the court of the building.

Rifle and machine gun fire was opened on the mob at 3:40 o'clock and lasted five minutes. It was most severe around the west portal of the building. Later the correspondent of the Associated Press counted at least 20 men lying in the outskirts of the Tiergarten, apparently wounded. When the troops began firing the crowd ran pell-mell in all directions.

At the sound of the guns, members of the lower house of the Reichstag left the assembly chamber and crowded into the lounging room, where there was intense excitement.

Wounded Lie in Open

Some of the wounded lay in the Tiegarten for a considerable time after the shooting, although many were carried off quickly by the sanitary corps and placed in nearby hospitals.

Members of the national assembly, which was meeting in the chamber, in the inner courts of the building, heard only faint reports of the shots. Gradually news of the clash reached the chamber, and an exodus followed into the corridors, into which a score of men from the mob succeeded in penetrating and immediately started a general harangue. Up in the press gallery the excitement was equally intense.

The government admits the loss of one member of the troop of guards, killed in the fighting, while several are missing.

The big oak-panelled door which gives access to the west wing of the Reichstag building was smashed during the attempted rush.

It was the prompt resistance of the public security troops on guard that prevented ingress, which would have resulted in the invasion of the chamber by the mob. Through this door a large-calibre bullet fired from the ranks of the mob found its way and also passed through a second door in the lobby, crowded with members. Provocation for firing upon the crowd was furnished by its attempt to storm the west entrance of the building. A score of men attacked several guards and wrenched their rifles away just as soldiers rushed up. General firing began immediately.

Fusillade From Troops

When the mob ran into the street fronting the south side of the edifice, soldiers stationed there immediately opened a fusillade. Six slightly-wounded civilians were carried into the Reichstag building, a dozen others were transferred to the guardhouse near the Brandenburg Gate, and a number were carried off by members of the sanitary corps.

The Reichstag immediately adjourned amid great confusion. President Fehrenbach was obliged to leave the chair, but was unable to control the situation. Members of various parties engaged in violent recriminations, and members of the Cabinet left the chamber.

When the troops dispersed the crowd they extended their cordon in the direction of Unter den Linden, where throngs filled the street. An officer who chanced along was severely beaten by the crowd.

After a short recess the House visibly quieted down, and President Fehrenbach, rising from his seat, told the deputies the day's casualties had reached a total which would occasion profound regret, and that further deliberations could, under the circumstances, hardly be expected to continue with necessary calm. He suggested an adjournment until Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The deputies received the announcement standing and then left the chamber.

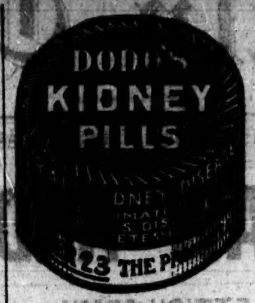

Independent Socialist leaders plan to continue demonstrations whenever the industrial councils bill is up for debate, and it is expected the climax will be reached on Thursday, which is the anniversary of the deaths of Dr. Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, radical leaders, who were slain while being taken to Moabit prison.

The Entente missions arriving here are reported to have indicated their intention to call upon their governments for military protection if the demonstrations are threatening.

Last night Noske's troops placed riflemen with a barbed wire cordon throughout the downtown streets. The Reichstag square was given a reinforced patrol. The Wilhelmstrasse was barred to all traffic and the government building was virtually inaccessible except to those employed there.

The city has lost thousands in revenue in the last few years through the want of Johnson Street Bridge.

COALITION WILL LAST SOME TIME

Lord Haldane Believes It Cannot Be Overturned, Because There Is No Substitute in Sight—Liberals and Labor.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Although the coalition government is losing seats in Parliament and the "handwriting on the wall is against it," nevertheless it can not be turned out, because there is no body to take its place, declared Viscount Haldane, former Lord High Chancellor, at Edinburgh on Tuesday. Viscount Haldane, who is an acute Liberal party politician, asserted he did not believe that either the Laborites, Liberals or any other party was likely to come into power in the near future, and that a change in the government could not be brought about until a strong united opposition to the coalition regime could be formed.

Such an opposition, he argued, could be established only by the formation of a great progressive party, composed of Laborites and Liberals.

He said: "Labor has captured the heights and we Liberals are down in the plains. We Liberals, framing ideals which are as high as those of Labor, must agree with Labor upon methods which, allowing for freedom of opinion and of progress, will make it possible for us to wor ktogether at the same problems."

The former Lord High Chancellor appealed to the Liberals to "recapture the heights from Labor and show the country they had something to preach even wider than Labor."

He said groups of the best thinkers in the United Kingdom had conferred on the same problem and had put into operation a programme of building a series of bridges between the individual and the state, so that the state should not be something apart, but be an intelligent individual expression of the best collective will. He asserted that it was, perhaps, on such lines that Liberals and Labor might co-operate.

Whether Viscount Haldane's plea will be indorsed by Herbert Asquith, former Premier, of whom the Viscount is a supporter, remains to be seen. It has been rumored recently that Mr. Asquith would become a candidate in the impending parliamentary contest in Paisley constituency, in which case his utterances would be awaited with interest. In the meantime, the Northcliffe press charges that Premier Lloyd George is seeking the general support of other newspapers. The Premier has not taken notice of this charge, which is equally ignored by his political associates and press champions.

The Daily Mail says today it is believed that if Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary for War, thinks the Premier's attempt is not likely to succeed, Mr. Churchill himself may seek the leadership.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured by B. B. B.

Rheumatism is a constitutional disease, caused by the uric acid in the blood. It manifests itself by pain and lameness attacking the muscles and joints of the body, which often swell and become hot and inflamed.

Anyone who has suffered month after month, and perhaps year after year, with rheumatism, and who has tried remedy after remedy in the hope of relief, and without success, should not give up hope.

Burdock Blood-Bitters, by invigorating the digestive organs and eliminating the uric acid from the system, will give prompt and permanent relief.

Mrs. D. Barry, Purlbrook, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know of the great benefit my husband derived from using your Burdock Blood Bitters. He had been suffering for the past two years with inflammatory rheumatism. He tried many medicines but got no better. A friend advised him to take B. B. B. He did so, and after taking five bottles he felt like a new man, and was able to go to work the same as ever."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CANDIES

You never tasted anything so good in your whole life as Wiper's candies. That is what many of our patrons say who buy them week in and week out. Is there any wonder when we tell you we don't use candy substitutes, and that's saying a lot these times of shortage and high prices. The Gold and Silver Medals and Diplomas that were awarded Wiper's were for quality, and that same quality remains today.

GENERAL TOWNSHEND WISHES TO RETIRE

LONDON, Jan. 13.—Major-General Charles Townshend, the defender of Kut-El-Amara, has tendered his resignation to the War Office.

Gen. Townshend was imprisoned by the Turks when he and his garrison at Kut, south of Bagdad, were hemmed in by the Turks in 1916 and forced to surrender. He was released at the time of the armistice, being made the bearer of the message from the Turks to the British admiral in the Aegean Sea, applying for a cessation of hostilities. He returned shortly afterward to London.

The War Office, while admitting that Gen. Townshend had written a letter asking permission to resign, would not divulge the contents of the communication or comment on it. Announcements in the newspapers of the general's action aroused the keenest interest as he had been regarded as a war hero by the general public.

Although no reason has been assigned for Gen. Townshend's course, it is recalled that two facts exist which might have a bearing on the case. The first was the published article in which he charged the Government with failing to furnish him sufficient troops and ammunition in his Mesopotamia campaign, thereby causing his surrender. The second fact, which is regarded as a possible cause of his desire to quit, was his failure to receive recognition in any way through honors and grants of money to those bestowed on other famous leaders. The general's friends have made it known that they were deeply incensed because his services were not recognized.

The Vernon board will send a strong delegation to the convention of the British Columbia boards of trade which meets in Vancouver on February 4.

WOULD REMODEL COMMERCE BOARD

Representatives of Retail Merchants Suggest to Government Changes in Its Composition and Operation.

OTTAWA, Jan. 14.—Reconstruction of the Board of Commerce was urged on the Government today by a delegation representing the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada. The delegation asked that the board should be remodeled so as to consist of a consumer, a producer, a manufacturer, a retailer and a chairman with judicial experience. In regard to the last-named, the delegation suggested the retention of the present chairman of the board, Judge Robson. They also asked that the price-fixing activities of the board should cease.

Sir George Foster, in replying to the delegation, remarked that the appointment of the Board of Commerce was an attempt to settle prevailing unrest resulting from the increased cost of living. It might be that the board was not a perfect organization, but no one was perfect, and Sir George felt that the board was doing its best. However, the delegation had presented their views, and necessarily an answer could not be given immediately. He promised full consideration of the representations made.

The proceedings were brief. The delegation presented a resolution adopted at a special meeting of the Dominion board of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada. The meeting, the resolution states, was attended by representatives from all provinces throughout Canada.

Referring to the Board of Commerce, the resolution claims that the investigations of the board in regard to retail merchants have not disclosed any combines or excessive profits; that the element of competition among retail merchants prevents undue profit-making; that conditions of merchandising in the various parts of Canada are so varied that no general regulations as to margins of profit can be made which will be fair to the merchants and consumers; that the orders of the Board of Commerce have resulted in a great deal of disturbance in retail trade circles and that the uncertainty as to what further orders will be made from time to time is still more disturbing, not only to retail merchants but to manufacturers, wholesalers, bankers, the laboring classes and consumers.

The resolution follows, with the recommendations as to reconstitution of the board already cited. On the question of the profit fixing, it suggests that "the operations of the Board of Commerce, in so far as the fixing of retail prices and profits is concerned, be suspended; furthermore, that the board as reconstituted should be entrusted with the duties appertaining to an inland trade commission."

A series of further suggestions as to how the Board of Commerce "would be of greater service to Canada," were laid by the delegation before the Government. These were mainly:

The Board of Commerce should meet properly appointed committees from the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, the Wholesale Merchants' Association, the Retail Merchants' Association, the United Farmers' Association and other organized commercial bodies to secure proposals how trade could be improved by proper regulation.

Instead of the court attempting to dictate to the commercial classes how they should conduct their affairs, they should become a useful court to decide on the evidence laid before them on any commercial matter.

All agreements made, either by manufacturers themselves, between the manufacturers, wholesalers or retailers, should be laid before the Board of Commerce, and, if necessary, parties should appear to give reasons why the agreements were made.

All price contract agreements regarding trade-marked goods should be laid before the board for final ratification.

That charges could be made to the board by any person subjected to unfair methods of trading and those engaged in unfair practices dealt with.

Further suggestions made were that the board should be given authority to make recommendations to the Government if any commercial legislation is found to be operating unfairly; that all agents or subsidiary agencies in connection with the board should be abolished; that all classes of the community buying or selling merchandise should come under the operations of the board; that the board should devote their time to seeing that the proper channels of trade are not interfered with, and that all statistical reports in connection with commerce should come under the direction of the board.

PUBLIC REQUIRES COSTLY FOOTWEAR

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 14.—Shoe factories in the United States and Canada are producing more nearly a normal output than at any time during the last three years, L. H. Simons, of Philadelphia, said in an address yesterday before the National Shoe Retailers' Association.

The two countries, he added, are probably the only places in the world adequately supplied with leather shoes.

Mr. Simons said that the demand was centering unduly on the best grades of leather regardless of prices. The public is not interested, he added, in buying shoes made from the medium and lower grades of leather, such as they bought in 1914.

POSTMASTER CHARGED WITH TAKING MONEY

VANCOUVER, Jan. 14.—Joseph Barnes, postmaster at Van Anda, was brought to the city last night in police custody, having been committed by Police Magistrate R. M. Banham, of Powell River, to stand trial in Vancouver on a charge of fraudulently converting to his own use the sum of $760, the property of the postmaster-general of Canada.

It is understood that the arrest followed investigations by the post-office inspector at Victoria, and was made by Sergeant J. Fripp, of the Royal North West Mounted Police, and Constable Hadley of Powell River.

PAPER BLOCKADE AT FORT FRANCES

FORT FRANCES, Ont., Jan. 14.—The deadlock continues regarding the shipment of paper by the Fort Frances Pulp and Paper Company to the newspapers in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. No paper has been shipped west since January 8.

The mill is running, and no embargo has been placed on export to the United States, but no export shipments have been made since Monday, when an attempt was made to commandeer the paper at the mill by J. L. McNicol, special representative of the paper controller at Ottawa, and Sheriff J. Baker, of Fort Frances.

In regard to making a forcible entry into the mill to seize the paper it is understood that the sheriff has been uncertain about his authority.

The switch line connecting the mill with the Canadian National Railway has not been seriously damaged. A switch point was removed, but it was later replaced.

ONTARIO REVERTING TO PRE-WAR BASIS

TORONTO, Jan. 14.—The next session of the legislature will see Ontario back to normal in the matter of legislation.

The desire manifested by the British and Dominion governments to get away from war conditions and return so far as possible to peace conditions is being reflected in the Drury government. Former Provincial Treasurer McGarry removed the war tax of one mill on the dollar payable by all Ontario municipalities to the provincial government. The only other step necessary to bring Ontario's laws back to pre-war footing, is the repeal of the Moratorium Act.

This will without doubt be done during the next session of the legislature, which according to Premier Drury, should assemble about the middle of March. It is possible, but not likely, that the act may be repealed before that time by order-in-council.

Uruguayan Duel

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, Jan. 14.—Jose Battile y Ordonez, twice president of Uruguay, was wounded in the arm during a duel with swords with Senator Leonel Aguirre yesterday afternoon. The ex-president was wounded a few seconds after the beginning of the encounter, forcing its suspension. It is said that Senor Battile sent his second to Senator Aguirre as the result of an article in the newspaper El Pais, of which Senator Aguirre is a co-proprietor.

Strike Reduces Fire Losses

WINNIPEG, Jan. 14.—Winnipeg's general strike last Summer was directly responsible for a million and a half dollar reduction in fire losses, says Charles Heath, provincial fire commissioner, in his 1919 annual report. People learned to be more careful when the regular fire brigade was not on the job, he says. Winnipeg's loss was $606,479, the lowest yearly fire loss in a decade.

Executions at Peterboro

PETERBORO, Ont., Jan. 14.—"Good-bye, Canon," simultaneously Thomas Konek and Michael Bahri uttered their last message to Rev. Canon J. C. Davidson, as the black cap slid over their heads and hid their faces from view in the gray hour of dawn this morning. At 8:30, three minutes after they left their cells, the trap was sprung and both men paid the penalty for the murder of Philip Yannoff in June last. They walked to the scaffold with scarcely a tremor and made their last remark unwaveringly.

FOR VICTORIA'S PROGRESS.

Paramount in the consideration of all who vote in the municipal elections today will be the fate of the Johnson Street bridge, an undertaking which has been among the livest topics of local interest for many years. The necessity of this transportation facility is questioned in no quarter where the progress of Victoria is held to be desirable. The City Council, as it exists at present, is unanimously in favor of the by-law, while the agreement that has been made with the Canadian Pacific Railway is a product of the combined wisdom of the City and the Provincial Government. Premier Oliver's staunch advocacy of the undertaking is a proof of the Government's belief of how advantageous the new bridge will prove in the development of the community.

By the construction of the bridge Victoria stands to gain many things because it will be an earnest of industrial development in a number of directions. By the defeat of the by-law it is assured that prospective undertakings will be abandoned, so that it is logical to suppose the unemployment situation will become more acute. No development undertaken by the municipality is more likely to lead to immediate and continuous employment than the building of the bridge, for the results will be cumulative and will continue to ensue when the transportation facility is an accomplished fact. Unless opportunities are seized in the lives of individuals and communities the latter have no one to blame but themselves. In one respect we are now at the parting of the ways. The citizens have to choose between assured and progressive development, with the all-round benefits which it will entail, and something which will closely resemble stagnation. The opportunity which is open today has been sought by every element of the community. They have only to co-operate to seize upon it and open up a new era of progress which will do more for the future than has ever been done before by municipal endeavor.

In the interests of Victoria we would urge all our readers to give their support to the bridge by-law. Its importance cannot be overestimated. We have asked Governments and companies to do things for us in the past in order to insure prosperity and a growing pay roll. The opportunity is ours today of taking such a step ourselves. In the period of reconstruction, municipalities are vitally interested. In the present instance Victoria has the chance of doing such a work as will bring about industrial development in a permanent way, and that is something of which the city is sorely in need. A good deal of the small volume of opposition which there is to the by-law has been based on selfish motives, which do not take into consideration the good of the whole people. Everyone will benefit, either directly or indirectly, by the Johnson Street bridge. It is an investment which will repay the citizens tenfold before many years have passed. It is, above all, an evidence of the co-operative spirit to promote development works, and the building of it will mark a long step forward in making this community a centre of industrial activity. Civic patriotism should insure the passage of the by-law.

TODAY'S ELECTIONS

Victoria today chooses a new municipal council to conduct the city's affairs during the ensuing twelve months. There are a number of matters which will deserve careful consideration in the immediate future; in fact, it is quite likely that the coming year will be the most important of our civic history. On this account it is the duty of the voters to pay particular attention to the type of candidates they elect to office. A number of the existing aldermen deserve well at the hands of the community, for there can be no question that they have given valuable service to the city. We do not mean to say there should be no change in the composition of the Council, for an infusion of new blood is always a healthy operation, but it is certain that the majority of the voters will, in many instances, pledge their allegiance to those particular aldermen who have served them well in the past.

We think it is regretable that there should be only one woman candidate. Women are gradually awakening to a sense of participation in political doings. In some respects the caution they exercise is to be commended, for it is obviously their desire to become thoroughly posted on the affairs of government before they offer themselves for election. No doubt, as time goes on there will be more and more women in the field. Their presence will be welcomed, for the interest they have already evinced in the science of government is a hopeful feature for the future of the race. In today's election the public would have liked to see at least three or four women candidates, for through a process of education, which women themselves have instituted and maintained, they have been successful in inculcating the belief that their advent into the councils of the people is to be welcomed.

One feature of today's election that has been absent in the past is the presence of Labor candidates with clearly defined policies for presentation to the electors. We would be doing these candidates an injustice if we did not say that they have preferred their claims for consideration in a conservative manner. They have clearly enunciated the doctrine that Labor wishes in all its actions to proceed by constitutional means. That statement is all the more welcome at a time when Labor representatives are seeking support by ballot. It is their first definite bid for political representation in the municipal regime here, and the experiment will be followed with interest.

For the School Board there are six candidates seeking four positions as trustees. In a sphere so important as the educational field it is regrettable that there should not be greater competition. Two of the candidates, however, are women, so that the proportion in this respect is far better than in the aldermanic contest. There has been a good deal of comment, and much of it of a pertinent character, regarding the apathy shown towards this particular contest, especially at a time when three of the old trustees have dropped out altogether. As a matter of fact, there is a tendency in all our municipal affairs to postpone action, and this is especially noticeable where candidates are concerned, for some people need powerful and repeated persuasion before they will allow their names to go before the public. There is an insufficient sense of the duty of public service, a condition which can only be remedied by a process of education which will inculcate a better appreciation of civic patriotism.

ADMINISTRATION REFERENDUM.

Until the authorities vouchsafe more information on whatever may be proposed in the matter of a board of control or a commission form of government the voters on today's municipal referendum will do well not to commit themselves to either of these forms of administration. The electorate have no desire to take a leap in the dark. It seems as if the administration referendum will hardly secure a majority opinion on any form of government unless there is a general concentration of the vote on the proposal for a mayor and ten aldermen, with half the latter elected for a term of two years. That is the only question for which there is likely to be any consistent support. The application of the proportional representation system in a case like this, where that system has not yet been approved, renders the decision that will be given likely to be more complex. There was no need whatever for the application of this method in the referendum and the probabilities are few people will take advantage of the system in recording their votes.

If we might venture to give advice on the subject we would suggest that the voters would do well to plump outright for the mayor and ten-man council so as to leave no doubt about what the feeling is. Subsequently, if there is any substantial section of public opinion favorable to either a commission form of government or a board of control it will be the duty of the Council to decide upon the specific forms of administrations upon which the public will be asked to vote in some future referendum. The voters look to the authorities for guidance in these matters and the former should never have been asked to register their opinion on such nebulous questions as two of those submitted in the present referendum.

All who favor golf for the greatest number at a small cost will vote today for the by-law to establish a links off the Cadboro Bay Road. It is a needed municipal improvement which will add to the pleasure and health of the community without costing the ratepayers anything. From every standpoint a municipal golf links is a sign of progress and an evidence of the people's estimation of the value of healthful recreation.

PACKED HOUSE HEARS SAANICH CANDIDATES

Tolmie School Filled to Overflowing Last Evening—Meeting Going on at Same Time in Tillicum School.

A packed house heard Saanich municipal candidates air their views in the Tolmie school last evening. A meeting was held in the Tillicum School at the same time.

Retiring Reeve Jones, Reeve-elect Watson, Councillor Dooley, and the two police commissioner candidates, Messrs. James Owens and R. Macnicol, spoke at both gatherings. The two latter speakers brought up the matter of the Chief Dryden dismissal again.

Messrs. W. Graham and A. Watchman, the candidates for councillor-in Ward 3, placed their views before the Tolmie School audience.

Tonight a meeting will be held in the hall adjacent to St. Luke's Church, Cedar Hill.

Muggins: A Tribute

Had I the gift to make you understood,
The sort of hero that you were and are;
'Twould do me good to shake your blessed hand
And whisper that your soul will journey far:
Far unto a better world than this
Where comrades wait you for the good you've done,
And they'll be waiting, holding solemn tryst
With Him whose throne reflects the radiant light of sun.
Dumb though you were, you had an almost human soul;
Had you been man you would have offered up your life
Where bayonets flashed; you would have paid the toll
And died to save the world from future strife.

OFFICERS GET AWAY WITH THE LIQUOR

But Only After Display of Revolver in Gordon Hotel Bar Awed Quintette Who Showed Disposition to Mix It.

Pulling revolvers to effect arrests of suspected offenders against the Prohibition Act is getting to be a common practice these days. In the police court yesterday morning when the charge against Peter Cook and John Ferguson, bartender and proprietor respectively, of the Gordon Hotel, lower Johnson Street, were arraigned on charges of having liquor for sale, evidence was given to the effect that Constable Clare, when seeking to leave the bar premises with a glass containing some liquor which he believed, was "hard stuff," was set upon by five men in the bar who sought to get the glass from him, and he pulled his revolver to scare them away.

Recently a fleeing bartender behind whose mahogany liquor was found by police officers, was brought to a stop by a shot from the pursuing officer's gun. In that case, however, the suspect, by jumping his bail, much to the chagrin of fellow bartenders who put up $1,000 in cash, escaped trial. He is still listed among the missing.

Evidence in yesterday's charges was taken at morning and afternoon sittings, the cases being further remanded until Friday when Magistrate Jay will deliver judgment.

The alleged offence occurred on New Year's eve when Constable Clare entered the Gordon Hotel bar and asked for some "hard-stuff." The accused Cook, Clare testified, reached beneath the bar and produced a glass containing liquor stating the charge would be twenty-five cents. Clare tasted the liquor but not, apparently, disposing of it speedily enough Cook urged him, he said, to "get it down" as it was necessary to be careful these days. Clare thereupon informed accused Cook that he was a police officer and Cookp romptly leaned over the bar seizing the officer by one sleeve in an effort to get the glass. Most of the liquor in the glass was spilled upon the bar floor but Clare held the glass with which he started for the door. Cook, Clare testified, shouted out to others in the bar "stop that man." Five men sought to bar egress to the street, but Clare pulled his club and holding tightly on to the glass got out on the street where he was joined by Constable Palmer, who entered the bar, Clare remaining outside as he was afraid he might lose what little liquor he had managed to keep in the glass. The men inside sought to prevent Palmer from entering and Clare pulled his revolver and ordered them to stand back.

Palmer's Evidence

Constable Palmer told of entering the bar just in time to see Cook behind the bar rush to the far end and empty a jug into the bar sink. He ordered Cook to come to the police station but Cook refused, whereupon Palmer jumped behind the bar and arrested him. Accused, Palmer testified, stated on the way to the station, "Pretty hard lines when I was just going off shift and only had a little left to sell."

Evidence as to the proof spirit contents of the liquor seized by Constable Clare was given by Mr. C. S. Williams, chemist. He testified that the proof spirit content of the small sample he was supplied with was fifty-nine per cent, but, he said, the amount available for analysis was so small that he could not get a satisfactory result and his analysis, therefore, was subject to a very large error.

In his own defense Cook admitted serving Constable Clare, but insisted the article he served was not liquor, but Ho-Ke, the product of a local concern, a non-alcoholic stimulant. Clare, he said, had not paid him for the drink. He jumped over the bar and caught hold of the constable as he thought the latter was running away with the glass and that was why he called to the others in the bar to stop the officer. He maintained stoutly that there had never been any liquor in the bar while he was employed there. He declared Clare had dropped the glass on the floor.

John Ferguson, also accused on a similar charge, testified that he had never allowed any liquor in his bar. He had not come to the bar on that night until after Cook had been arrested.

ORIGINAL 7TH HONORED

Sgt. J. C. Anthony Awarded the M. S. M. for Services Overseas, According to Final Honors List

It is announced in the final honors list published by Canadian Headquarters, London, that ex-Staff Sgt. J. C. Anthony has been awarded the Meritorious Service Medal.

Mr. "Jack" Anthony is well known and deservedly popular in local circles, and it will be with the greatest pleasure that his many friends will hear of the honor earned by this plucky lad. Prior to the war Mr. Anthony was one of the leading spirits in the scout movement in Victoria, and not a little of the success of the old Third Troop was due to his untiring efforts and ability.

This N.C.O. who only returned to this city from overseas in October last, was a member of the 88th Fusiliers prior to the outbreak of war, and left with the first detachment from that unit on August 28, 1914, joining the original 7th Battalion.

Promoted sergeant after the second battle of Ypres, he was severely wounded at Festubert on May 24, 1915. After nearly a year's treatment in various hospitals in France and England he was pronounced as unfit for further service in the field but was, however, retained in England on administrative work, being stationed at Bramshott and latterly at Buxton until October of last year.

Mr. Anthony is one of the few surviving members of the famous original 7th Battalion, First B. C. Regiment, and his early injury in the war deprived the battalion of a young and gallant worker who was universally popular amongst his comrades. Experiencing a series of severe trials in hospitals as the result of his injuries his friends will be glad to hear that Mr. "Jack" Anthony has now nearly regained his normal strength.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The British Colonist of January 15, 1870)

The Canadian Pacific—Now is Britain's opportunity. It will be well for the British people, both at home and on this continent, to bring themselves to regard this immediate question of a railroad, which as yet exists only on paper in the light of a national duty and a national necessity, so far as this colony is concerned, but one opinion exists on the subject. All feel that without it the new Dominion can never hang together—must prove a rope of sand. By the sternest laws of constitution British Columbia must either be bound to Canada by bands not weaker than iron or absorbed in that nation by which it is now encircled. True, there are to be found persons in British Columbia who doubt on, doubt everything—poor, driveling minds, unprepared for any great enterprise, hesitating at every onward step.

Pandora Quagmire—To illustrate still further the condition of this thoroughfare, we may mention that a carriage drawn by two horses and containing two persons sank in the hole on Pandora Street on Friday evening and was only extricated after the occupants of the vehicle had alighted and walked to their destination. The corporation should not have graded the street until they were prepared to metal it as well.

MAYOR AROUSED BY POLICE CHARGES

Refutes Accusations of Candidate for Commissioner—Mr. A. M. Gregg Cites Murder Cases.

Charges of extravagance and inefficiency hurled against the police department by Mr. A. M. Gregg, candidate for police commissioner at today's election, yesterday brought Mayor Porter, chairman of the 1919 Board of Police Commissioners, into the open with statements refuting Mr. Gregg's utterances.

Mr. Gregg also came out with an explanation modifying some of the charges as reported in the papers.

"Mr. Gregg's charge that $1,000 was spent by the Police Board on detectives' automobiles is quite incorrect," said the Mayor. "As a matter of fact, only $100 was spent on one car and nothing for the other. No additional compensation was paid in consideration of trips made to Ladysmith, Duncan and Chemainus. We found it much more economical to use our own cars than to hire outside machines."

The Mayor also took exception to Mr. Gregg's claims that boys of tender years were allowed in so-called bars and were sold strong liquor. "That is absolutely untrue," said the Mayor. "Anyone who would resort to such methods in an election is despicable."

Mr. Gregg, in a statement given out yesterday afternoon, declared that the city had to pay for the gas consumed by the two detectives' automobiles. "In connection with the charge about boys going into bars, I did not mean to convey the impression that I believed this was permitted at all such places. But I know for a fact that in one instance a boy did get liquor without difficulty. I want to be fair to the bars who don't sell liquor."

"Chief Langley says that there have been so many demands on the detective department lately that the staff had to be supplemented by constables. The reason that there are so many demands is that the detectives are out canvassing for Mr. Day."

Independent Labor platform. Mr. A. E. Todd and Mr. J. I. Seabrook are Independents.

There are six nominees for four vacancies on the School Board. Mrs. Bertha P. Andrews, who served on the board last year, is again in the contest. The other candidates are: John L. Beckwith, John William Bolden, Sarah L. Coady-Johnson, Arthur Colville Pike and Melbourne Raynor. Mr. Pike is the Labor candidate. The others are Independent.

Triangular Contest

It will be a three-cornered fight for the Police Commissionership. Only one man is to be elected. Mr. R. S. Day seeks a return to office after serving two years. He is opposed by Mr. A. M. Gregg, whose charges against the police administration have furnished one of the sensations of an otherwise listless campaign, and Mr. A. G. Snelling, who is backed by the Army and Navy Veterans' Association.

Those who vote on the "P. R." referendum will be required to vote simply "yes" or "no." Supporters of the system claim that its adoption will lead to the elimination of these conditions that are possible under the present plan: Election of a majority of representatives by a minority of voters.

The vote on the plebiscite regarding the form of civic government favored will be taken according to the proportional representation plan, and voters will be asked to write "1," "2," "3," and so on opposite the plans specified in the order in which the plans are considered worthy of support. The four alternative schemes of government submitted are: Administration of the city's affairs by (1) Mayor and ten aldermen as at present, but elected for a term of two years, one-half retiring annually; (2) Board under the form of commission government; (3) Mayor, to be elected annually, and four aldermen to be elected for a term of two years, half to retire annually; (4) Council to be elected for a term of two years, one-half the Council retiring annually, and a board of control consisting of the Mayor and two controllers to be elected as provided for by the Municipal Act.

Polling Plans Complete

Victoria's veteran returning officer, W. W. Northcott, announced yesterday afternoon that the preparations for taking the vote will be complete by the time polling starts this morning. The voting will take place in the Market Building and under better conditions than has been possible in any previous election, Mr. Northcott believes. Voters will enter the polling station at the entrance to the former Health Department, in the Market Building, 616 Cormorant Street. They will encounter the polling booths for the two bylaws first. Property owners only are entitled to vote on these. After voting for the bylaws the voters will pass out of the building at 618 Cormorant Street and re-enter again at 620 Cormorant Street to vote, in order, for aldermen, school trustees, police commissioners, the plebiscite and referendum. The exit will be through the Fire Department. The main entrance to the market building will be closed in order to prevent a draught from entering the enclosure. The booths have been built in the north end of the building, so that the cold from the glass skylight will be unable to penetrate them, and six big stoves will be provided.

Announces Deputies

Mr. Northcott will have a force of nearly 150 officials under him to assist in handling the ballots. He announced his deputies as follows:

Aldermen, No. 1 booth, H. J. Ashdown.
Aldermen, No. 2 booth, Alex. Murdock.
Aldermen, No. 3 booth, A. S. Ashwell.
Aldermen, No. 4 booth, John B. MacCallum.

Last evening a very pleasant time was spent at the Knights of Columbus Army Hut by service, ex-service men and their lady friends. Military five hundred took up the first part of the evening under the capable direction of Mr. M. Steele. The game was very closely contested and the following won the prizes with a score of 28 flags: Mrs. Samm, Mrs. R. Burns, Mr. D. Oliver and Mr. G. J. Service. Immediately following the card game dancing was indulged in until midnight, and, as usual, the Broughton brothers were on hand to kindly volunteer their services for the dance music, which was all that could be desired.

The next entertainment will be held on Wednesday night, January 21.

But it is far more to the point to prevent as well as to treat sour stomach, belching, water brash, etc., by such a valuable means as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Coddling the stomach with soft food and predigested stuff merely invites sluggishness.

You will find Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets on sale at any drug store in the United States and Canada, as they are considered one of the stand-bys by the druggist.

MUCH BLOOD SHED AS BERLIN POLICE ATTACK ASSAILANTS

adds that neither the government nor its organs were responsible for the bloodshed.

"The aim of the criminal elements, however," it says, "was achieved and the workers were stirred by the bloodshed. The responsibility will be on the heads of those who senselessly led innocent people into danger of destruction."

Press Opinions

BERLIN, JAN. 14.—The Conservative and Liberal press concur in attaching the blame for Tuesday's clashes to the Independents and Communists. Provocation for the shooting, it is declared by eyewitnesses, came from the leaders of the mobs. Editorial criticism is directed against the authorities for not providing adequate troops in view of the constantly augmenting crowds which assembled in the early hours of the afternoon. Only a single chain of guards was assigned to defend the west portal of the Reichstag building, which was the objective of the attack.

Observers say the conduct of the troops and their leaders was such as to give offence to the crowds at no time. Their attitude was unprovocative. This also is the conviction of the Associated Press correspondent, who made the rounds of the area outside of the building.

Numerous personal attacks upon officers and troops outside the fighting zone were reported. Several guards were stabbed, and one was thrown into the river. In Unter Den Linden, where the crowds gathered after having been driven away from the Reichstag, officers and men were attacked.

Independents Accused

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—Immediately on the opening of the session of the National Assembly yesterday Herr Geyer, who succeeded Hugo Haase as the floor leader of the Independent Socialists, entered his party's protest against the presence of armed forces in the Reichstag.

President Fehrenbach declared that on his arrival in the Reichstag building the director informed him that the Government had provided protection for the legislators.

Herr Henke, one of the most radical of the Independent members, supported Herr Geyer's protest and declared that the Government's action was "in opposition to the spirit of real democracy."

The Assembly had entered upon the second reading of the shop councils measure when the first shots were heard. Three Independents left the chamber, but returned a few moments later led by Frau Louisa Zeetz, who was prominent in the German naval mutiny in Wilhelmshaven in 1917. Pandemonium immediately broke loose. President Fehrenbach adjourned the session for 45 minutes.

When the session was resumed the Independents at once began filibustering to have the debate put off. Herren Geyer, Duevil and Laukang led the attack.

Herr Fehrenbach again closed the session temporarily, and announced that the three Independents would be barred from the sitting during the rest of the proceedings.

TRIAL OF CAILLAUX FIXED FOR FEB. 17

PARIS, Jan. 14.—The opening of the trial of Joseph Caillaux, former Premier of France, charged with intriguing to bring about a premature and dishonorable peace with Germany, was tonight fixed for February 17. M. Caillaux appeared before the Senate, sitting as the high court, late this evening after a long wait while the Senate was electing officials. He looked pale and drawn.

Prosecutor Leicouve asked that the trial be postponed to February 3 in order to give the newly-elected senators time to study the voluminous documents in the case. Vincent Demorro-Giafferi, counsel for M. Caillaux, surprised all present by asking for a further delay to the end of February instead of demanding an immediate trial, as it had been reported.

We want it and want it badly—the Johnson Street Bridge.

ONTARIO WILL HAVE CLOSE CENSORSHIP

WINNIPEG, Jan. 14.—The Telegram's Toronto correspondent states that an order-in-council has been passed by the Ontario Government appointing a board of censors for the purpose of passing on posters, handbills, cuts, newspapers and periodical advertising, banners, flags, photographs and lobby displays in picture theatres.

The charge to the film exchange will be $150 and to the theatres $10 each. All advertisements must be censored before they appear in the newspapers, under a penalty of from $20 to $200.

EXTEND WELCOME TO PRAIRIE VISITORS

VANCOUVER, B.C., Jan. 14.—Thursday evening will see the greatest reception to Winter visitors from the prairies that has ever been held in the city, it being estimated that over 1,200 people will attend the Board of Trade's welcome at the Hotel Vancouver.

The object of the gathering is to establish a closer relationship between the prairies and the Coast, and to show the visitors the city's appreciation of their presence here.

There will be a buffet supper, an entertainment and addresses from local and prairie speakers.

Hungarian Treaty

PARIS, Jan. 14.—The treaty of peace with Hungary will be delivered to the Hungarian delegates at the Foreign Office at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The ceremony will not be public.

The Johnson Street Bridge will increase the city's revenue.

ONTARIO MINISTERS ARE STILL SEATLESS

TORONTO, Jan. 14.—Denial was made by G. E. Sewell, United Farmers of Ontario member-elect for North Norfolk, that Premier Drury is to run in his constituency, as stated in newspapers here this morning.

"I have not been approached in the matter of resigning my seat," said Mr. Sewell, "and I have no intention of resigning."

The Premier made no statement this morning relative to the matter. Hon. R. H. Grant, Minister of Education, said that it was certain that Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture, will go before the voters of East Kent.

COURT OF APPEAL SITS HERE JAN. 27

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 14.—The Court of Appeal has adjourned. It commences its sittings in Victoria on January 27, but will not sit again in Vancouver till April. The court disposed of considerable business during its session. It dismissed eleven appeals; reserved judgment in 35 cases, and only allowed the appeal at the conclusion of the hearing in one case, that of the First Church of Christ Scientist against the Monarch Art Stone Co.

One case, that of Wintemute vs. Taylor, was settled by consent.

Disclaim Interest—The management of the K. of C. Army Hut wishes it understood that they are in no way interested in a raffle for a gramophone, tickets for which are now being sold by an individual who, it is stated, uses the name of the organization as a reference.

We have talked Johnson Street Bridge for a quarter of a century—let's build it.

City and District in Brief

Firemen's Dance—The Firemen's Recreation Club will hold its usual weekly dance in St. John's Hall tonight from 9 to 12; Zala's orchestra.

Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter—Nominations for officers of the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E., will be taken at the chapter's meeting this evening at 8 o'clock.

Will Hold Train—To give everyone an opportunity to vote, the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway announced yesterday that this morning's northbound train will leave the depot at 9:30 instead of at 9 o'clock.

Columbia W.A.—The regular monthly meeting of the Diocesan Board will be held on Friday at St. Matthias, Foul Bay, corner Lillian Road, commencing at 11 a.m. Afternoon session at 2 o'clock.

Six Years on School Board—Mr. James Owens, who is out as candidate for police commissioner in Saanich, has been a resident of the municipality for 28 years, and for the past six years has been on the school board.

Chapter Nominates Officers—The nomination of officers for election at the annual meeting next month was the only item of business transacted at a special meeting the Robert Valentine Harvey Chapter I.O.D.E., held last evening, in the headquarters, Jones Building.

Aerial League Dance—The Aerial League has decided to hold another of its popular dances at the Alexandra Club. The date being fixed for Wednesday, February 11. Heaton's orchestra will be in attendance and everything will be done to make it a huge success.

To Hold Silver Tea—The Strawberry Vale Women's Institute will hold a silver tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stewart Waugh, Holland Avenue, the proceeds going to the Victorian Order of Nurses. Tea will be served from three to five, and a musical programme will be given by Mrs. R. Layritz, Mrs. John Young and Mrs. H. Watkins.

The Old Familiar—The sight of a truck fairly well loaded with sundry neat, cleanly wooden cases of a kind familiar enough in the good old days, was a refreshing sight as it drove along the embankment yesterday and in order to accentuate the fact that the beholders guess was not at fault there in bold letters on the end of one case was the name "King George IV"—of blessed memory.

Dance at Saanichton—The Saanichton Agricultural Hall was the scene last night of one of a series of dances being given at fortnightly intervals by the North and South Saanich Agricultural Association. The dining room was in charge of the West Saanich Ladies' Institute, excellent refreshments being served during the course of the evening. There was a good attendance as at former dances under the same auspices, for these social affairs have proved popular. Perry's orchestra supplied the music for the dancing.

Applied Psychology—Mrs. Hele Ash announces a course of twelve lectures on Applied Psychology, to begin on Saturday evening, January 17, at 8:30, and to continue on Wednesday and Saturday evenings of each week. These lectures are for the benefit of men and business women who are unable to attend the afternoon lectures, which will continue as heretofore on Tuesday and Friday afternoons at three o'clock, all to take place at 448 Chester Street. Further particulars can be had by telephoning 4872L.

Settling on the Land—In the year just ended 1,750 new applications for pre-emptions on Crown lands of the Province were received compared with but 175 in 1918, a fact which is indicative of the increasing settlement on the lands of the Province, a large number of these being from returned men. The Fort George section appears to have been the favorite section in which pre-emptors sought to locate, this being especially true along the line of the G.T.P. Railway. During 1919 the total pre-emption examinations of all kinds was 2,911 compared with 442 in the previous year.

Chinese Consul's Plea—Dr. Koliang Yih, Chinese consul at Vancouver, was a caller upon Premier Oliver yesterday morning, and in the course of the conversation they had the distinguished visitor took occasion to refer to the amendments passed at the last session of the Legislature to the Workmen's Compensation Act whereby it was provided that beneficiaries under the provisions of the act, resident in China, should be paid in amounts of equal value in their own country to those paid out in this country. This arrangement, it was stated by Dr. Koliang Yih, is deemed by the Chinese an unfair one. He promised that he would make further representations relative thereto.

Carpenters' Wages — At a special meeting of the Victoria Builders' Exchange, Ltd., at the offices, No. 508 Sayward Building, the following resolution was carried: "That carpenters' wages would remain as at present, $6 per day for eight hours' work." Some considerable discussion took place on the high price of lumber and the trouble of getting a sufficient supply for local needs. It was pointed out by some of the contractors that a very large amount of lumber was being cut by local mills, the bulk of it being shipped out of the Province and very little consideration given the needs of local contractors. The result is that the building industry was suffering to a large extent.

Radio Club Meet—Next Monday evening in Room 323 Pemberton Block there will be a general display of amateur wireless telegraph apparatus. All members and those interested are cordially invited to attend. Open discussion on the apparatus displayed with the idea of pointing out possible improvements will follow. Methods of arriving at the desired end, application of various parts and discussion of connections will occupy the remainder of the period. It is understood that a great variety of apparatus will be on hand, and the discussion to follow will be thrown open to all. The main object of the Radio Club is to foster and stimulate interest in wireless telegraphy and telephony, and to this and all interested in the above are most cordially invited to be present.

Robert Burns McMicking Chapter—The annual meeting of the Robert Burns McMicking Chapter, I.O.D.E., was held on Monday evening, when the following officers were elected: Honorary regent, Mrs. R. B. McMicking; honorary vice-regent, Mrs. R. Renwick; regent, Mrs. L. W. Thomas; Vice-regent, Miss Myra Renwick; 2nd vice-regent, Miss Gwendolin Pontifex; secretary, Miss Mildred Robertson; treasurer, Miss Jessie Paul; educational secretary, Mrs. W. McMicking; "Echoes" secretary, Miss Beatrice McDonald; standard bearer, Miss Allison Chrow. Preparations for the dance to be held in the K. of P. Hall on "Queen Victoria's Violet Day," Thursday, Jan. 22, were discussed. The members are working enthusiastically and feel sure of giving all an enjoyable evening.

Victoria Presbyterial — Tomorrow morning, commencing at 9:30, the annual meeting of the Victoria Presbyterial Women's Missionary Society will hold its first (of three) session at the First Presbyterian Church. Afternoon and evening sessions are to be held at 1:30 and 8 respectively, and the Rev. Mr. Dowie, a returned missionary, will give an address at the former, his subject to be "Formosa." The evening is to be open to men as well as women, and a special invitation is extended to all young women and girls. Although the proceedings are to be of a social character an address is to be given by Miss Archibald, of Trinidad. A programme is to be given which will comprise musical numbers. Refreshments will be served before the gathering disperses.

Increased Timber Sales—A great increase in timber sales by the Government is reported for the year 1919 when the aggregate was $654,372 compared with $380,408 in 1918, $483,281 in 1917 and $259,769 in 1916. Sales for Vancouver Island totalled $223,166, heading the list of districts. Fort George came second with $134,650 and Prince Rupert third with $133,596. All districts showed an increase in timber sold especially in the Upper Fraser River and Upper Thompson River sections. Total sales aggregated 366 compared with 227 in 1918 and the area cruised for sales was 61,809 acres compared with 23,316 three years ago. Details of the report show that over 4,000,000 lineal feel of piling were sold in 1919 compared with 375,000 feet the previous year, while large increases are noted in shingle bolts and cordwood.

V.A.S.C. Hold Jolly Dance—An unqualified success from every standpoint was the fourth annual dance held last evening in the Alexandra Club ballroom by the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club, which was attended by about 350. Steenson's four-piece orchestra furnished a very attractive programme of the latest dance numbers and the popular pastime continued from nine o'clock until two. The committees responsible for the success of the affair numbered the following members of the club: Mrs. H. Catterall, Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Witty, Mrs. Mennell, Mrs. Stott, Mrs. R. W. Hibberson, Mrs. Armstrong. Messrs. C. E. Harper, J. Marshall, J. T. Witty and W. Matheson, who were indefatigable in their efforts to promote the enjoyment of guests.

Selling Livestock Insurance—Mr. Kenneth Blatchford, of Edmonton, blew into Victoria yesterday like a prairie breeze. Almost everyone who has lived in either Alberta or Saskatchewan knows Kenneth. He states that in some parts of Saskatchewan last year hail insurance adjusters were so thick, making adjustments that they could not find accommodation for them all, and that many of the farmers moved out with nothing but an old nag and a covered caravan, leaving their farms and machinery to liquidate their debts. While in Victoria Mr. Blatchford is selling livestock insurance for the Great North Insurance Company of Calgary, and took a trip in this connection as far as Deep Cove. With the exception of the specific hail beaten paths, he states that crops were average and the farmers are as hopeful as ever for the year 1920.

"J" Unit Chapter Meets—At the meeting of the "J" Unit Chapter, I.O.D.E., on Tuesday evening, the members voted $100 to the Widows and Orphans' Fund and plans were made for a concert and dance to be held at Esquimalt tomorrow evening. Nominations were made for officials to be elected at the annual meeting next month and it was decided to hold another dance shortly. Grateful acknowledgment was made of a donation of $5 towards the fund for the care of soldiers' graves from Mrs. M. A. Foster.

We want it and want it badly—the Johnson Street Bridge.

Camp Reunion Banquet—On January 6, the Y.M.C.A. plans to hold a reunion banquet for all old members who attended the merry gathering at the Gorge in the years before the war. Returned members from the front are included, and the lady friends also will be present. Arrangements are nearing completion now and the affair promises to be a merry oldtime social gathering. A comprehensive toast list has been drawn up, with numerous oldtimers on the list. Games will conclude the evening.

The Reserve becomes taxable as soon as it is used—we want the Johnson Street Bridge.

The Dominion Government will build a Marine Stire's Building as soon as the Johnson Street Bridge is built.

IMPERIALS HERE MAY DRAW ON KING'S FUND

Imperial Forces Club Hears Explanation of Re-establishment Grant—Exchange Question Explained.

An explanation was given before the Imperial Force Club last evening of the King's fund for the disabled, from which, by application, any Imperial pensioner here suffering a service disability and wishing to re-establish himself in civil life, may draw a sum of money amounting to about five hundred dollars. Application must be made to the secretary of the fund in London.

Major Macdonald made a statement regarding the rate of exchange between Canada and the Old Country. The gratuity money held back for exchange is now being paid through the banks.

The only question pertaining to the imperials in this country that remains to be settled is that of a hospital allowance for nursing sisters and officers. This matter is now being dealt with.

The Johnson Street Bridge will increase the city's revenue.

PROPAGANDA TO KILL BY-LAW FALSE

Mr. Todd's Arguments Against Johnson Street Bridge Refuted by Mayor Porter and Dr. Tolmie.

Following up his campaign to wreck the Johnson Street bridge by-law, initiated when he spoke at the High School Tuesday night, ex-Mayor Albert E. Todd yesterday had dodgers outlining his reasons for opposition to the plan distributed about the city.

The wording of the dodgers is largely a repetition of Mr. Todd's speech at the High School. Mr. Todd attempts to pick flaws in almost every important clause of the agreement between the Provincial Government, the city and the C.P.R., which he claims to be "grossly one-sided and unfair."

Shortly after the dodgers appeared on the streets Mayor Porter came into possession of one of them, and he immediately issued a statement, declaring that the document was full of half-truths and misstatements, calculated to mislead the electorate at the eleventh hour.

Vote Was Unanimous

The concluding argument in the Todd propaganda is that the City Council was divided when it was decided to submit the by-law to the people. The paragraph in question says: "The by-law to pass must have a sixty per cent favorable vote. At the City Council meeting, 28th December, when it was decided to send the by-law on to the people, six members of the Council voted for and five members voted against. This is a 55 per cent vote. The City Council itself has not sufficient faith in the by-law to pass it by the 60 per cent vote required of the people!"

Investigation of City Hall records yesterday disclosed that in several particulars the above paragraph is incorrect. In the first place, the meeting was held January 2, and not December 28. The vote in favor of the by-law was unanimous; not only that, every member of the Council was present.

Expropriation Cost

"For the purchase of the H. A. Munn property," said Mayor Porter, "the by-law sets aside $57,000, this being the amount to cover estimated cost and contingencies such as grading. Mr. Todd charges that this is an exorbitant price, and that the city should not have allowed so much. Mr. Todd claims that a board of real estate dealers assessed the property in 1916 at $19,000, but he omitted to mention that when he was an Alderman he used his influence in getting the Council to take an option on the property at $70,000. The Council took his advice, because it regarded him as the real estate expert of the board. Mr. Todd personally was then in favor of the $70,000 price, yet now he tries to condemn the Council for allowing $57,000 to buy the property and pay for the grading."

The Mayor also answered Mr. Todd's assertion that the bridge plan should be rejected because it provided for a curvature. "I can say that at Portland there is a bridge with much greater curvature, and it has proved satisfactory in every way. It handles more traffic than the Johnson Street bridge will be required to handle for years. In Vancouver there is the Granville Street bridge, and at New Westminster, the Fraser River bridge, both of which structures have a greater curvature and yet are giving good service. I may say that the bridge plans were not only prepared by City Engineer Preston, but were also approved by the engineers for the C.P.R., the Provincial Government and the Dominion Government."

Status of B.C. Electric

The Mayor also dwelt upon the status of the B.C. Electric Railway in connection with the bridge.

"The city has a written agreement with the B.C. Electric, the terms of which specify that whenever the company may see fit to lay its tracks across the bridge it will contribute $50,000 towards the cost of the structure. This money will revert to the city."

Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, though still confined to his home with illness, considered the bridge issue of sufficient importance to prepare a statement, in which he declared that the building of the bridge according to the present by-law is imperative.

The Minister said:

"For years, in fact ever since the Indians left the reserve, we have been looking to the development of that area in an industrial way, and it has been recognized generally that without proper bridge connection this would be impossible, since industries there would operate only under severe handicap without convenient communication with the city. The bridge, indeed, should have been erected long ago, and undoubtedly would have been but for the difficulty of getting the various interests to agree upon a common course of action. Now, after prolonged negotiations, this point has been reached, the people of Victoria should give the arrangement their backing.

Dr. Tolmies' Reasons

"I would like to point out, too, that first-class connection between the city and the former Reserve will be necessary if Victoria is to benefit from the developments in Esquimalt which will flow from the construction of the drydock, as she should. This is an important consideration—this question of good transportation to the western sections of the community—and it would be regrettable if the people of this city failed to appreciate its importance.

"Let us remember that what this city is going to be will depend upon what its citizens make it, not upon what this or that Government might do. Our trouble here has been that we have depended too much upon Governments and not enough upon our own initiative, courage, resources and foresight.

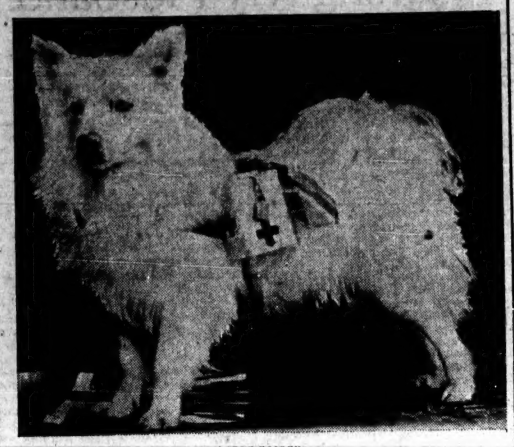

"There has been some criticism of the Dominion Government on its failure to contribute to the cost of the bridge. Mr. McIntosh and myself took this up with the Department of Public Works, which pointed out that the Government had no direct interest in the question beyond the protection of navigation in the harbor."

Manitoba Civil Servants

WINNIPEG, Jan. 13.—Announcement that the Government had declined to grant the bonus asked by the Manitoba civil servants' association and that a recommendation would be made to the cabinet to adopt group insurance covering the whole of the employees, was made at the annual gathering of the organization held in the legislative chamber last night.

Collected $21,000 for Charity

"MUGGINS"

MUGGINS' CAREER ENDED BY PNEUMONIA

Famous Spitz Which Collected $21,000 for Red Cross and Kindred Patriotic Funds Succumbs After Useful Life.

It was with very genuine regret that citizens yesterday learned of the demise of Muggins, the wonderful dog which since the commencement of the war in 1914 became famous through the length and breadth of the Empire for his work in collecting for various patriotic funds. Muggins' death occurred at one o'clock yesterday afternoon, following a two weeks' illness from pneumonia, and although Dr. H. Keown, the veterinary surgeon, did everything within his power to save the life of the renowned Spitz, on the last night visiting him no less than three times to administer all relief possible, it availed nothing. Muggins' career was over.

A recital of Muggins' various war activities and the interesting incidents and personalities connected therewith would make a book which all animal lovers would enjoy reading. There is no doubt that he was one of the most far-famed canines on this continent, and it was surprising to discover how many of the travelers and tourists coming off the boats from the Orient and Antipodes as well as from the more neighboring cities in Canada and the United States had heard his whole history long before landing here. During the war there were few vessels touching port here which he did not board. In this respect he was a privileged character, and a very significant part of the huge sum of $21,000 which constituted his life's collection toward various patriotic and philanthropic funds was given by passengers who never even debarked at Victoria. Right up to Christmas week he continued his work, and it is not at all improbable that it was in connection with his final "appeal" that he caught the chill which resulted in his death.

Muggins was seven years old, and commenced collecting shortly after the outbreak of the war. Among the funds for which he "canvassed" were the Red Cross (he turned over $14,000 to this organization alone, and until the armistice was signed was under their management), the Salvation Army, the Protestant Orphanage, the Friendly Help, the Rotary Club (Christmas Fund), Craigdarroch and Esquimalt Hospitals, the I.O.D.E. Widows and Orphans' Christmas tree fund, the Comrades of the Great War Orphans' fund, and the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter milk fund.

Worthily Decorated

Recognition of his service has been made by a number of organizations as well as individuals, and he held seven decorations, all but one of which (this last, which has been made by the officers and men of Esquimalt Hospital, must now be regarded as posthumous) were attached to the breast strap of the smart set of harness which had just been made for him and which had been worn only twice. These decorations are as follows:

Bar, from the United States; medal from the French Red Cross Society; medal from the Great War Veterans of Canada; badge given by the men of H.M.S. Lancaster; gold badge from the military branch of the Y.M.C.A.; auxiliary workers' medal from England.

It is now a well authenticated fact that no single animal during the war collected so much money for patriotic purposes. His little stand, which for many months every year was to be found either at the wharf end of the Causeway or at the entrance to the Empress Hotel, was familiar to everyone in the city. On special occasions, tag days, etc., he was to be found stationed at some of the up-town corners, and as late as Christmas week he occupied his box just in front of Williams' drug store collecting for the I.O.D.E. milk fund. Just about a year ago he was absent from his station for five weeks, suffering from an attack of influenza. But he resumed duty as soon as his mistress, Mrs. Woodward, who is heartbroken over his death, considered him strong enough, and remained steadily at his post throughout the entire Summer. On another occasion he was stolen, and it was feared that he was permanently lost.

The Canadian Red Cross, who had his picture painted by the Canadian artist, Mrs. Mary Riter Hamilton, intend having the body mounted, and it is understood they are requesting the Provincial Government to place this in the Parliament Buildings here until such time as the Victoria war memorial is established.

SIR GEORGE PAISH TALKS ON FINANCE

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—It is the conviction of Sir George Paish, the English financial authority, that if the American people desire that the present vast flow of export to Europe shall be maintained without a breakdown it will be necessary for them to offer their support by the purchase of bonds, just as they supported the war itself with bonds.

In a speech last night before the council of foreign relations, which met at a dinner to consider various questions connected with the financing of American foreign trade, Sir George warned his hearers that in the present critical situation of export some device will have to be arranged quickly to relieve the existing system of financing. This system, Sir George explained, is one which contemplates some reasonable balance between exports and imports; it never contemplated that there would come a time in the world when all the Atlantic freight would be carried one way.

Taming My Husband

By Kathleen Fox

CVII.—WORRIED ABOUT BUSINESS

I had endured much because of my love for Crittenden and because I wanted him to love me. I fear sometimes that women who read my story may criticize me for enduring it, whose militant spirits would have urged them long ago to do what Crittenden feared I might do—quit. And I find myself ready to apologize for my weakness, which I confess, and yet I honestly can claim with more or less pride that I was strong in spite of it. At least I did not quit. I can point to that with pride!

And now just as Summer had waned and Fall had come, I felt that a portion of my reward was at hand. We had been happy again for a long time, having forgotten the unhappiness that had been ours before. But I was cautious. I did not reach out my hand for the reward; I had been disappointed too many times. I merely would wait to see whether it would be given in full measure.

Would our happiness continue? I asked myself this question every day. But I did not once answer it. All I said was: "I hope so, I hope so."

October, golden and bright slipped into the happy past that already held a part of my rich reward. Came November with its sharper tang, but a beautiful month, nevertheless, with our happiness long drawn out. I began really to hope now, to hope and believe. Thanksgiving was very near, and now I felt with all my heart that I should have the most I had ever known to be truly thankful for.

Crittenden and Jack Langley had completed their estimates regarding the expansion of the plant, contingent upon the latter entering as a partner. One item, Crittenden explained, that of material cost, remained to be worked out and then they would know. So far they had only roughly estimated it.

Crittenden came home one day shortly afterward, greatly worried.

"What is it, dear?" I inquired. "Aren't things going just right?"

"No. Our deal requires more money than we've got. I'm afraid it will have to be dropped."

He said it with such deep disappointment that I felt very sorry for him. I wished then that I had money of my own to give him, that he might realize his plans.

"Oh, I'm sorry, Crittenden," I cried.

He put his arms around me.

"I know you are, Bess," he said, tenderly. "But you understand it doesn't mean anything serious except that it will prevent a real development in the business that I've been planning for a long time. We'll get on all right, but I certainly do hate to see those orders slip out of our hands just because we can't rake up a little more cash."

"Well, is it all settled?" I asked. "Is there no hope that it can be put through at all?"

"No, I'm glad to say, it isn't final," he replied. "There may be a way to squeeze through on it."

"Daddy might, Crittenden—" I got no farther.

"No, no, no," he said, rapidly. "I don't even want him to know about it. I wouldn't put his money into it. Now Jack is coming over tonight and we're going over our figures again," he went on. "There's a chance that we may be able, through eliminations, to cut down enough to make it."

"I hope so," I said, realizing that hoping so did not help.

"Jack's inheritance did not pan out quite as much as was expected," he then said. "I had not asked him what it was, but he had understood before his uncle died that he was worth around sixty thousand. The estate fell short of that about twelve."

"Then it all depends upon revision of the figures?" I inferred.

He nodded.

"Well, I hope you will find errors in your favor," I said, trying to cheer and encourage him.

"That's very unlikely," said Crittenden, shaking his head. "Jack made nearly all the estimates and he's very thorough. And I'm pretty sure I made no mistakes in my figures. But, we shall see tonight."

When Jack arrived, Betty was with him. Jack had a portfolio in his hand, and he and Crittenden immediately went to the den, leaving Betty and me in the living room.

We chatted for awhile, then Betty played and sang. But she was restless, nervous, uncomfortable. I had observed it almost the minute she entered the house. And I was a little surprised, for Betty usually is the most composed little person I know.

Suddenly she turned to me and told me what was the matter.

"Jack's terribly worried about something," she said. "I don't know what."

TOMORROW—"I HAVE A RIGHT TO HELP HIM."

INTEND TO BUILD A MEETING HALL

Garden City Women's Institute at Annual Meeting Yesterday Decided to Search for Site—Officers Elected.

The annual meeting of the Garden City Women's Institute held yesterday afternoon met, with favor the suggestion advanced during the course of the session that the organization should endeavor to secure some lots in the district where they could erect a permanent home for the Institute. The matter was carried to the point of electing a committee of three to investigate the possibilities of securing suitable ground, and within the near future the members may hope to make some definite decision.

There was a good attendance of members at the meeting, and the election of officers resulted in the return of Mrs. Fryett to the president's office, with Mrs. R. Smith for vice-president. Owing to the approaching departure for England of the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Maude Hall, who for the past two years has very capably held the office, it became necessary to secure a substitute, and Mrs. J. Dewar was chosen for the position. Four directors are called for, the president and vice-president automatically occupying two of these places, and Mrs. Stansfield and Mrs. R. Smith being chosen for the remaining two.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Stansfield were named as a committee of two to work on the matter of selecting a site for the proposed new hall.

A vote of thanks to the president and retiring secretary for their very efficient services during the year just closed was passed before adjournment and members were gratified to learn by the reports that the twelve months had been very successful, finances showing $30 in hand.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Birkett, Jasmine Avenue, Garden City, and at the conclusion of the business proceedings very delicious afternoon tea was served.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. A. Blyth, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Brown, Jr., Miss Gertie Jay and Messrs. S. Redgrave and G. Miles left on Wednesday afternoon's boat for Vancouver as delegates from Victoria to attend the fourth annual ball given by the Native Sons of British Columbia, Post No. 2, in Lester Court.

Mrs. Charles Bremner, who has been visiting here for a few days, has returned to Vancouver, where she is the guest of Mrs. H. A. Bremner, Hampton Court, for a short visit before leaving for her home in Edmonton.

Miss Hazel Calbeck, of Earlscourt, Vancouver, was the guest of the Misses Ross for a few days last week on her way home from Seattle.

The Pacific Coast Musician in reviewing the presentation of Flotor's "Martha," by the Portland Opera Association, refers as follows to the work of a well known local singer: "J. McMillan Muir, as Lionel, was the new tenor find of the season. His powerful voice will long be remembered for its work in "Martha." Mr. and Mrs. Muir, the latter nee May Mitchell, of Victoria, are now residing in Portland, where they have already made many friends in musical circles.

Yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Thomas, 1036 St. Charles Street, the Gonzales Chapter held another of its successful sewing parties.

HEART SO BAD
WAS NOT SAFE TO LEAVE HER ALONE

Miss Eva P. Yateman, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes: "I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was down in bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better, although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls, wherever I was, that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines and took several different kinds, but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day noticing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I decided to try them, and before I had taken more than two boxes I could see they were helping me. I have taken about ten boxes, and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me, and I advise anyone troubled with their heart to try them, as I am confident they will find relief."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ENTERTAINED IN HONOR OF BROTHER

Mr. Styles Sehl, R.A.F., Who Has Just Returned From Overseas, Guest-in-Chief at Party Held by Sisters.

One of the jolliest private social functions of the New Year was that held in Tuesday evening when the Misses Kezia and Florence Sehl entertained about one hundred of their friends at St. John's Hall by way of a "Welcome Home" party in honor of the return from overseas of their brother, Mr. Styles Sehl, only son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Sehl, of 2411 Work Street.

The guests required no entertainment once the orchestra (Ozard's) commenced to play, and from the moment that the first dance tune began at about eight o'clock until two o'clock in the morning there were only the very briefest intermissions in the delightful pastime. Even when the orchestra "folded its tents, like the Arabs, and as silently slipped away," enthusiasts were found ready to take their places and "carry on" in order that the fun might continue unabated until the last permissible moment. Supper was served sometime before midnight, and assisting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sehl and the Misses Sehl in their duties as hosts were Mrs. John Hart and Mrs. R. E. Burns.

The returned aviator, Mr. Styles Sehl, has been with the Royal Air Force since August, 1917, and only returned to Victoria two days before Christmas after more than two and a half years' absence. He was still in his 'teens when he joined up, and has not yet, in fact, celebrated his coming-of-age. After leaving here in the Summer of 1917 he went to Toronto and, subsequently, Texas and England, to take his course in aviation, and actually ultimately spent a year in the fighting line, part of the time in the 203rd (Colonel Collishaw's) Squadron, part of the time in the 201st Squadron.

He has a host of friends in the city, both young and old, and the former were nearly all present at the gathering held in his honor on Tuesday evening by his sisters. As a small boy he attended St. Louis College here, later going to Columbia University, Portland, which he had only left shortly before going into the flying force.

COWICHAN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE CONVENES

Annual Meeting Listens to Interesting Reports of Work and Elects New Officers for Year.

DUNCAN, Jan. 14.—At the annual meeting of the Cowichan Women's Institute held in their rooms yesterday afternoon, 56 members were enrolled for this year, this number granting them a board of directors of five members, with power to add on increased membership.

Mrs. G. T. Corfield was elected president, Mrs. F. S. Leather first vice-president, Mrs. R. H. Whidden secretary, and with Mrs. E. W. Carr Hilton and Mrs. Geo. Henderson will form the directorate.

The financial statement for the year ending December 31, 1919, showed a balance on hand of $68.60. The total receipts of the year amounted to $874.71, while the expenditure came to $806.11.

Mrs. F. S. Leather, acting president, presented a report giving a brief resume of the past years endeavors. Reference was made to the great loss that had been entailed in the death of their president, Mrs. Blackwood Wileman, and regret was expressed in the departure to England of Mrs. W. H. Hayward, an untiring worker and former president.

The Institute's efforts during the past year, their work towards school consolidation which was now an accomplished fact and the establishment of a district nurse in this community, overcoming many obstacles encountered from unexpected sources.

The additional value of the Cowichan library, which under the new Libraries Act, now secured books from the Victoria Public Library was alluded to.

Report of Library

In giving the report for the library, it was stated that last year there were 94 members, with 1,441 books on the shelves, and that 2,744 books had been taken out during the past year. Donations of books had been received from Mr. J. W. Dickinson, Mrs. F. G. Christmas, Mrs. Holt Wilson, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Hodding, Mrs. Keeling, Mrs. Day, Mrs. David Ford, Miss Wilson, Mrs. Wilson, Capt. Tooker, Mrs. Peterson and Mr. Hugh Savage, and that Lieut.-Col Williams Freeman had presented the library with a Times History of the War, in memory of his son who was killed in action.

A resolution was passed, in which it stated that the institution regarded itself as holding in trust the library, for the general public. This being passed to clear up any misunderstanding that appeared to be existent.

A resolution was also passed, which was to be forwarded to the proper authorities, urging that franchise be given in municipal and civic elections to both male and female, when the property is under their joint ownership.

A vote of thanks was passed to the retiring officers, and Mrs. G. T. Corfield the newly elected president, thanked the members for the honor that she considered had been conferred on her, and expressed the wish that they would work harmoniously, and with good accomplishments throughout the coming year.

The city has lost thousands in revenue in the last few years through the want of Johnson Street Bridge.

NATIVE SONS ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Mr. Reginald Hayward Again Heads Local Post—Body to Hold Annual Ball as of Old.

That the Native Sons of B.C. will again prove a vital factor in the life and upbuilding of the city is evidenced by the ever-increasing membership and the type of young British Columbian now joining the ranks of the post. As a matter of fact the Native Sons are gaining in popularity at all five centres in British Columbia where posts are now established.

Post No. 1, Victoria, and Post No. 2, which is in Vancouver, are running neck and neck for supremacy, although the latter post must inevitably win through having a greater population to draw from and a larger scope.

The local post held its annual election of officers on Tuesday night, the results being as follows: Office of chief factor, Mr. Reginald Hayward; first vice-factor, Mr. Percy R. Brown, Jr.; chaplain, Mr. A. A. Blyth; recording secretary, Mr. W. S. Miles; secretary-treasurer, Mr. G. H. Miles; honorary treasurer, Mr. R. S. S. Yates; auditor, Mr. P. J. Hall; Mr. James Isbister and Mr. G. Smith, inside and outside sentinels respectively; committee of management, Messrs. Fred Waller, Hooper, S. Redgrave, E. McIntyre and Kenneth Greig.

A number of the local members and their wives made the trip to Vancouver yesterday afternoon to attend the annual ball of Post No. 2, held at Lester Court last evening.

It is the intention of the local post to hold its annual ball, which has been postponed during the war, some time after Easter. This event in the past has always been the event of the season, and it is planned now to bring it again into its rightful place. The next informal social dance of the Victoria Post, which has proved so popular with both young and old Victorians in the past few months, is planned for January 29, and its success is already assured.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Directors of the Pacific Coast Company in session today postponed declaration of the quarterly dividend on the common stock because of "pending developments with respect to coal miners' wages." The Pacific Coast Company owns the securities of the Pacific Coast Railroad, which operates various lines and branches in the State of Washington, and also owns coal properties in that state. The common stock has paid 4 per cent annually since 1917.

Your Watch?

How often do you have it cleaned? We will venture to say that ninety-nine men out of every hundred never think of having a watch examined or cleaned until it breaks down through sheer neglect. Look at it this way. The driving wheels of the fastest locomotive make 420,000 revolutions in twenty-four hours, and on an average are oiled every three or four hours—the balance of your watch vibrates 157,000,000 in twelve months—the rim travelling in that period as far as from Victoria to Montreal and return!

Be wise—let us give your watch periodical attention and it will serve you better and longer.

HEALTH INSURANCE DISCUSSED IN NANAIMO

Diversified Views Expressed By Representatives of Several Organizations — Legislation Along British Lines.

NANAIMO, Jan. 13.—The Health Insurance Commission in its itinerary of inquiry had a satisfactory session with a large number of citizens last evening at the Court House. After Chairman Winn had given a very clear statement of the matters of inquiry, public health, health insurance, maternity benefit and mothers' pensions, representatives of several organizations were questioned by the board. Mr. Bell presented the report of the G. W. V. A., urging progressive legislation along British lines. Mrs. T. W. Martindale said the Local Council of Women favored pensions not only to widows but also financial aid to all mothers in need. Mrs. Allen, of the Next-of-Kin Association; Mrs. McMillan, of the W. C. T. U., and Mr. J. Sutton also gave testimony. Mr. Dixon, of the Mine Medical Committee, thought the range of compensation should be extended to include illness or death induced secondarily by accident. Messrs. Naylor and Hodgkinson, of the extreme progressive wing, urged that compensation and the like should come entirely from capitalistic sources. All who gave testimony were in favor of progressive legislation.

LITTLE BOY'S DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL

Generous Action of Cheng Young Kam, Driver of Car That Hit Him.

NANAIMO, Jan. 14. — Coroner Hickling held an inquiry into the circumstances connected with the death of Harold McCracken, the three-year-old son of Mrs. Alex. McCracken, Dixon Street, who was killed by an automobile on Haliburton Street, on Monday afternoon. Several eyewitnesses of the fatality gave evidence tending to show that the automobile was travelling quite slowly at the time it struck the boy and that the driver of the car had it fully under control. The jury, composed of Messrs. J. W. Black, W. R. Graham, W. Curtis, A. Brown, George Emerick and A. Aitken, brought in a verdict of accidental death. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2:30 from the residence of Mr. J. R. Kirkwood, 647 Machleary Street. Rev. B. H. Balderston officiating.

Cheng Young Kam, the Chinaman who was driving the auto which knocked down and killed the lad, upon hearing that the boy's mother was a widow and in somewhat straitened circumstances, immediately sent her his cheque for $200 to defray the funeral expenses.

Brief News Notes

NANAIMO, Jan. 13.—Mr. Robert Thompson, 263 Nicol Street, is confined to bed with bruises and injury to right hip from the fall of rock in Wakeneah mine on Saturday afternoon.

The funeral service for Mrs. Luther Brighton was conducted yesterday by Rev. W. Vance, the pallbearers being Messrs C. Brown, G. Pollock, R. Blair, W. Piper, A. C. Carpenter and D. McLennan.

Mayor McKenzie and Mr. A. R. McKinnell, the mayoralty candidates, will be the guests of the Retail Merchants' Association tomorrow noon at the Windsor.

As the result of a meeting held last Sunday, regular Sunday evening services will probably be inaugurated in the Five Acres mission hall. A committee of eight, with Mr. J. W. Hughes as chairman, was appointed to make arrangements.

Victoria will grow industrially as soon as the Johnson Street Bridge is built.

If Thin and Nervous Try Bitro-Phosphate

While excessive thinness might be attributed to various and subtle causes in different individuals, it is a well-known fact that the lack of phosphorous in the human system is very largely responsible for this condition.

It seems to be well established that this deficiency in phosphorous may now be met by the use of Bitro-Phosphate, which can be obtained from any good druggist in convenient tablet form.

In many instances the assimilation of his phosphate by the nerve tissue soon produces a welcome change—nerve tension disappears, vigor and strength replace weakness and lack of energy, and the whole body loses its ugly hollows and abrupt angles, becoming enveloped in a glow of perfect health and beauty and the will and strength to be up and doing.

CAUTION—While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

Sold Beer to Indian

DUNCAN, Jan. 13.—Chew Deb, a prominent Chinese merchant, and proprietor of a Chinese clubhouse here, appeared in the city police court yesterday afternoon and pleaded guilty to the charge of the club supplying an Indian, Nasaf Joe, of the Quamichan band, with two bottles of beer, and was fined $50. The case came up before Justices of the Peace Walter Paterson and A. A. B. Herd. Mr. D. Gabourie was in charge at the club when the intoxicant was supplied to the Indian.

REVIEW OF NANAIMO'S MUNICIPAL RECORD

Year Begun With Increase in Salary of Mayor—Effects of Prohibition on Revenue of City.

NANAIMO, Jan. 13.—The advance in the mayor's salary from $600 to $1,000 a year was finally ratified at last night's meeting.

Ten of the city's workmen are applying for an increase of wages.

Alderman McGuckie said that the passage of the Prohibition Act had made a difference of $13,000 in revenue to the City of Nanaimo, and thought some claim for compensation should be made. Victoria will be written to about the matter.

Dr. Young, the Provincial Health Officer, had visited the Calstream, the overflowing of which had proved a menace to public health. He had discussed with the Medical Health Officer and others the question of an isolation hospital and had recommended the erection of a twelve-bed building somewhere near the present hospital.

The city's debt to the bank has been reduced by $22,000 during 1919.

The survey and plans of the South Forks Pipe Line cost $3,538.16; a complete house to house inspection was made of all taps and connections early in the year with good results in checking waste; 1,785 feet of water-main pipes and 4,548 feet of smaller pipes were laid during the year.

Dr. Drysdale, Medical Health Officer, reported nine cases of diphtheria during the year, of which four were fatal, and two of smallpox, with recovery. He strongly urged an isolation hospital, the beginning, at least, of a garbage system, an adequate supply of water and a central milk depot. Nanaimo has no garbage system whatever, and when the smallpox case appeared it was 36 hours before a suitable house was found. Dr. Drysdale had made 446 visits as health officer.

The fire department had responded to 48 alarms, the total loss on buildings and contents being $5,200. Chief Parkin recommends more hydrants and alarm boxes.

Chief of Police Neen reported 308 cases before the court, an increase of 101, with fines and costs amounting to $5,448.75. Five were committed to Okalla Prison Farm and six boys to the Industrial School. There were four sudden deaths and two inquests held; forty-four automobile accidents in which thirteen persons suffered slight injuries.

Cases in Police Court

NANAIMO, Jan. 13.—For having liquor in his possession, a resident of Duncan was fined fifty dollars and costs by Magistrate Potts in the city Police Court Monday morning. By the same magistrate in the Provincial Police Court, Jacob Koskello was fined $50 for driving a motor car while under the influence of liquor. A further charge against Koskello was adjourned for eight days.

NOTHING DOING FOR JACK IN NEW JERSEY

Athletic Commission Will Not Permit Dempsey to Box in That State—Says His Record Is Cause for Shame.

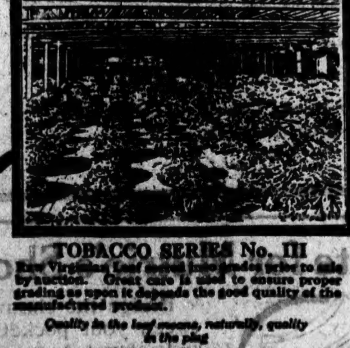

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 13.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, and his manager, Jack Kearns, will not be permitted to participate in any boxing contests in the state of New Jersey, John S. Smith, president of the New Jersey Athletic Commission, announced tonight.

"Jack Dempsey, prizefighter, is not good enough for the state of New Jersey," he added. "The state commission," he continued, "supported the action of various posts of the American Legion in branding the champion as a 'slacker.'"

Mr. Smith compared the "war record" of Dempsey, who, he said, acted as a labor scout for a shipyard, with that of Georges Carpentier, the French champion, who risked his life in battle and won the highest possible honors.

"All red-blooded Americans should blush with shame when Dempsey's war record is mentioned," he concluded.

MILLIONAIRES TAKE GAME FROM SEATTLE

Display Good Hockey Form, While Metropolitans Are Slow Except in Last Period —Final Score Is 3 to 1.

SEATTLE, Jan. 14. — The Seattle Metropolitans were off color tonight, and the Millionaires from Vancouver were at the pinnacle of their form, which tells the story of the three-to-one spanking administered to the home seven by the Northern invaders at the arena. Another packed house saw the struggle. Spectacular in spots, the struggle was keenly contested and fairly fast, with Cyclone Taylor and Company furnishing most of the features.

Young Mr. Taylor, the recruit who is breaking in with Brother Frank's outfit, was on another goal-getting rampage tonight. The youngster passed Goalie Holmes for two of his teams' goals, and assisted in the third. And while the Cyclone was showing the fans the speed which has won for him the name of being the fastest skater in hockey, the Cook-Duncan-Lehman defensive combination was stopping the Seattle rushes with a jerk. With both the visiting attack and the defence performing in championship form, the locals didn't have much chance to better their standing in the percentages tonight.

A redeeming feature of the defeat was the ninth-inning rally of the Mets, which, but for one person, might have resulted in a tie score. The fly in the ointment was Hughie Lehman, who is stationed in the Vancouver nets. Pilot Pete must have hopped the boys up during the second intermission, because Capt. Walker led his team to the ice determined to even it up or drop. And but for the eagle eye of the visiting goalie they might have succeeded. The play was all in the Vancouver territory near the finish, and the rapid fire shooting of the Mets had Lehman hopping around like a Mexican jumping bean. The offerings of Tobin, Walker and the rest of the Mets' shooters hit the posts, the corners, and every part of Lehman's anatomy, but didn't go into the net.

Scoring:

First period: 1, Vancouver, Taylor from Cook, 2:02; 2, Vancouver, Skinner from Taylor, 12:12.

Second period: 3, Seattle, Tobin, 3:27; 4, Vancouver, Taylor from Harris, 14:06.

Third period: No score.

HARPER SUCCEEDS IN KEEPING HIS TITLE

Six Interesting Rounds With Jimmy Dundee Ended in a Draw Decision—Was Fast Bout All Through.

SEATTLE, Jan. 14.—Bobby Harper retained his Northwest title last night at the Crystal Pool when he was given a draw decision with Jimmy Dundee, the aggressive California 130-pounder, after the two lightweights had battled through six very interesting rounds. Frankie Denny, the best of the California welters, carried away a decision over Jimmy Storey only after a sensational contest in which a couple of knockdowns by Denny were just enough to give him the call.

A big crowd of fans saw the show, which was staged by the Elks' Lodge, and not only did the patrons see a high-class card, but the Seattle Boys' Club, a local organization of working boys, benefited by the programme. The Elks turned over all the proceeds to this organization.

The main event was a fast exhibition in every one of the six rounds. The local boy made good on his promise to disregard his defensive tactics, and he not only forced the fighting, but had the best of the going in the early rounds. But Dundee finished in his usual manner, and at the finish had a big shade in the closing rounds. The draw decision was well received, with Dundee's supporters claiming he should have won, and Harper's friends just as positive that Harper had the edge.

VETERANS OUTSHINE THE NEWER STARS

Father Time Unable to Dim the Brilliance of Johnson, Lehman and Taylor, of Coast Hockey League.

Three of the veterans of hockey will be on the ice Friday night at the Arena when the Aristocrats clash with Vancouver, and those selfsame veterans, Cyclone Taylor, the visitors' pivot man; Hughie Lehman, the Millionaires' goaltender, and Ernie Johnson, often slated as the star defence man of the league, will, if they play to their usual form, be still the shining lights of the encounter.

It is one of the peculiarities of hockey that, despite the fact that it is the fastest game in the world, such veterans as the trio mentioned defy the advance of Father Time as athletes in no other branch of sport can, and continue to star each season the curtain is rung up on the Winter sport that fascinates thousands.

Stars loom up and go. The performances of some bright puckchaser in the amateur leagues are flashed across the continent, and a new world beater is looked for, but new stars in hockey are almost as scarce as the proverbial hens' tooth. Lester Patrick gathered one when he put Wilf Loughlin on his payroll last season, but throughout the years one each season is above the average discovery.

Yet it is not because the supply of puckchasers is scarce that Johnson, Lehman and Taylor continue to shine. The wily veterans have studied hockey, assimilated a bag of tricks and generally so cultivated hockey knowledge that they have something ready for any emergency. This, possessed with extraordinary stamina, enables them to hold the places they hold today. Each one has already shown this season that he is as capable as ever. The Moose is still singled out on frequent occasions as the star of the septette. Hughie Lehman's phenomenal tending was the only thing that saved Victoria piling up a greater total Monday, and Cyclone Taylor, had he not missed a couple of games, might still be on the hels of Tommy Dunderdale on the form he has shown again this season.

There is little doubt that, before the season is much farther advanced Taylor will be the Victoria centre's greatest rival. Not one of the trio loses any effectiveness or shows signs of the many battles they have taken part in having any detrimental effect when they take the ice with the younger men of the game.

KEARNS DENIES THAT DEMPSEY IS SLACKER

Coming of Peace Rather Too Soon Prevented Champion Pugilist From Getting Into Uniform, It Is Alleged.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 14.—Denial of charges that Jack Dempsey was a "draft dodger" and "slacker," and defence of his conduct during the war was made by Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, in a signed statement issued here today. The statement follows:

"Jack Dempsey was not a 'draft dodger' during the war. Anyone who makes such a charge cannot support it with facts.

"When the draft call came in 1917 Jack Dempsey was placed in Class 4-A. This was because he was a married man and, in addition was supporting a mother, an invalid brother and a sister. Dempsey at the time made no claims for exemption merely stating the true facts in his own case, when filling out his questionnaire.

"Sometime later the draft board, readjusting the classifications, placed Dempsey in Class A-1, but almost immediately afterward put him in Class 2-B. He remained there during the rest of the war and was subject any day to call for war duty. If the conflict had lasted a few weeks longer it seems a certainty that Dempsey would have been a uniformed man.

"During the course of the war Jack Dempsey was employed as a riveter and as a recruit in the Sun Shipbuilding plant at Philadelphia, and also in one of the shipyards in Seattle. And when he was not doing that he was appearing in fistic contests at the benefits for the different war charities. By this means approximately $100,000 was raised for the various war funds."

APPROVE RUTH DEAL

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—Harry H. Frazee, the Red Sox owner, returned to town today after a rather stormy week in Boston, following his sale of "Babe" Ruth to the Yankees. He declared that hundreds of Boston fans had given him their approval of the deal, agreeing that Ruth's going would be a good thing for his club, which had become a one-man team.

Incidentally, Frazee added that he had been misquoted a great deal in the Boston newspapers, in which he was made to say that Ruth was a disorganizer. The only impression he meant to convey was that without the home run king there would be far more harmony in the club, as the rest of the players were beginning to feel that their good work was being entirely ignored. Ruth, he said, had kicked over the traces frequently, but had never been difficult to handle.

"BURGLARS, BEWARE"

Isaac Patrick, Cashier at Arena, Issues Warning—Vancouver Rink Loses Large Sum

Isaac Patrick, cashier at the Arena, received word last night that a lone masked bandit held up the cashier in the Vancouver Arena and took $131 in cash.

Isaac states that he is not going to take any chances. Last evening he locked the amateur hockey dressing room of which the ticket office is a part, and in the past has been open to all. "Beware Burglar" is the advice that Mr. Patrick is passing arpund. He intends purchasing a regular revolver today which he will have close at hand. Outside of the wicket he figures on installing a small pile driver. When Mr. Bandit puts his face up to the window and says "hands up," Isaac from inside the office will step on a lever, dropping a 100 pound hammer, giving the man a knock-out blow.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACING

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Jan. 14. — The Grand Circuit Stewards Monday killed the idea of a two-weeks' exposition by the New York State Fair Commission in Syracuse in 1920 when they refused to allow Syracuse two weeks of grand circuit racing.

Announcement was made that David Look, New York, will be elected president of the new trotting association which will be formed here to oppose the National and American Associations as a governing body of the racing sport in the United States.

Many half-mile track associations have agreed to support the new organization, it was announced.

SKI EXPERTS WILL MEET AT REVELSTOKE

Nels Nelson, Canadian Champion, Is Already Training for Carnival Next Month—Many Stars Have Entered.

REVELSTOKE, B. C., Jan. 14. — Snow is falling once more in the mountains and the hearts of the ski-jumpers are glad within them, for the last obstacle to what promises to be the most successful ski-ing carnival ever held has been snowed under by over two feet and the white stuff is still coming down.

The Revelstoke carnival, which has come to be one of the big annual features in the ski-ing world, will be held this year on the 10th and 11th of February, and all who take an interst in outdoor sport should make a note of these dates, as the event is already attracting an unprecedented amount of interest both locally and in the outside world.

Haugen, Steinwall, Nelson, Larsen, Hendrickson, Bruhn and Willman are names to conjure with in ski-land and they have all entered for the competitions, three at least coming from as far east as Chicago to see if the world's record jump of 213 feet, made in 1919 by Haugen, at Steamboat Springs, Colorado, cannot be broken on what is conceded by those who know, to be the fastest ski-run on the continent. The C. P. R. is making special arrangements and reduced rates to accommodate those who journey from outside points, and special carloads of well-known sportsmen will be made up in both Vancouver and Calgary.

As a clean and healthy exercise, ski-ing is rapidly claiming a well-earned place in the sun, and in this vicinity at least surpasses easily any other Winter sport in the hold it has on the interest of the rising generation.

The Canadian champion, Nels Nelson, who broke the world's record at Revelstoke in 1914, is already in training here, and, as the local run has been greatly improved during the past season, he feels quite confident of holding his own with the fast company from the East, and is looking forward to excelling his remarkable performances of former years.

DEPARTURE WILL MEAN LOSS TO LOCAL SPORT

Joe Dilworth, Prominent for Some Years in Victoria Amateur Sport is Leaving City for Vancouver

Great regret is expressed in sporting circles at the loss amateur sport in Victoria will sustain with the departure from the city at the end of this month of J. W. Dilworth, who has taken an active interest in amateur sport here for some eight years past, and last year did invaluable work as secretary of the Victoria Baseball League. "Joe" was one of the few expert baseball scorers of the city and put in a lot of hard work in his position of secretary and official scorer, and it was also largely due to his efforts that the new British Columbia Baseball Association was organized.

He is leaving Victoria to take a position in Vancouver, and his friends here are hoping that as he is not going very far away he will be over here occasionally to keep up old sporting and other acquaintances.

GOLF IS A MAGNET TO ATTRACT MONEY

Increased Facilities for Play in British Columbia Would Divert Many Eastern Canadians From California.

There is every prospect of British Columbia going more heavily into the promotion of golf than formerly. This activity will be due to a desire to attract Winter golfers of Canada who now play on the American Southern courses or go to California for their cold weather golf. Few people perhaps realize the great vogue the Southern States now enjoy with Canadian golfers during the Winter months. In one hotel no fewer than thirty-eight Canadians were registered in one week, principally from Toronto and Montreal.

In an hotel in California, over forty golfers from the Dominion, largely recruited from Winnipeg and the West, were among the guests. Pinehurst and Southern Pines attract "Canucks" literally by the score. A secretary of a prominent Winnipeg golf club, writing last Winter in reference to a rather important matter which would have to come before his board, said: "Cannot do anything in reference to this just now, as the whole of my governors are down in California."

The Canadian Golfer thinks it no exaggeration to put the number of Canadian golfers who flit southward every Winter well into four figures. More and more the well-to-do golfer is staying home in the Summer and Autumn and taking his vacation in the months from December to May. British Columbia, Washington and Oregon are striving to divert a part at least of this lucrative tourist travel in the Winter to the Pacific Coast.

An association has been formed to boom the golf courses and playgrounds of Victoria, Spokane and other well known centres there. This association has received the financial backing of various provincial and state governments and municipalities, and from now on an active publicity propaganda will be inaugurated.

Ottawa Defeats Quebec

QUEBEC, Jan. 14.—In one of the most exciting and fastest hockey games ever witnessed on the local ice, the Ottawa Senators again defeated the Quebec Bulldogs at the Arena tonight. It was a heartbreaking game for the locals to lose, as they had fully as much of the game, if not more than their opponents, but the breaks were against them, and as a result they came out on the short end of the score by 2 to 1.

AMERICAN CREWS TO COMPETE AT HENLEY

Union Boat Club of Boston Will Probably Be Represented—Yale and Harvard Consider Entry for Grand Challenge.

BOSTON, Jan. 14.—The United States will probably be represented at the Henley rowing regatta in England next Summer by a crew from the Union Boat Club, of this city.

Yale and Harvard Universities, it was learned today, have had under consideration a proposal to send their 'varsity eights across to compete for the Grand Challenge Cup, now held by Harvard as a result of the victory of a crimson crew at Henley in 1914.

The Union Boat Club already has set about preparation of a crew to challenge for the Grand Cup, and may also send individuals as competitors in the Diamond Sculls event. Lothrop Withington, former Harvard captain, now captain of the Union crew, said thirty men were candidates. The squad includes Lund, stroke of the Harvard eight which won the Grand Cup in 1914; Kreger, coxswain of that crew; Whitman, Cutler and Murray, who captained Harvard eights of recent years; Lothrop Withington and his brother, Major Paul Withington, coach and stroke of the A. E. F. crew, which rowed at the last Henley and at the inter-Allied events at Paris last year; Armory Jeffreys, a member of the A. E. F. crew, and Shoemaker, formerly of the University of Pennsylvania.

HARD CONTESTS SEEN IN V. A. C. BOXING

VANCOUVER, Jan. 14.—When Bobby Harper clipped Harold Jones on the jaw in the second round of the main bout at the V.A.C. boxing show tonight, sending the Tacoma boy spinning to the canvas, fans expected to see the Northwest titleholder win a comparatively easy fight, but Jones was on his feet in an instant and from then until the end had the edge on Harper. The referee called it a draw.

Georgie Ross and Eddie Jackson gave an interesting exhibition in the semi-wind-up. Three of the four rounds were about even, but in the last session Ross opened up and with a barrage of left and right hooks had the Seattle boy seeking cover. The draw here was unsatisfactory to many of the audience. Aside from this the awards of Referee Lynch were unusually well received.

Len Holiday and Charley Davison fought three very even rounds in their four-round bout, with Holiday having a slight shade in the third. Honors were divided.

The bout between Billy Young and Eli Caston was one of the best on the card; both fighters being willing mixers. The draw decision was well received.

In the first preliminary, Willie Fitzgerald of Seattle made a good showing for the first time out, but took a good lacing from Billy Bertram, who earned the only decision of the evening.

TO ENTERTAIN PLAYERS

Elks' Club Will Give Local Professional and Amateur Teams Smoker and Concert

On Thursday, January 29, the Elks are holding a smoker and concert for all professional and amateur puckchasers of Victoria. The evening promises to be a live one, the Elks having lined up an excellent programme for the players. All men will receive an invitation through their managers, and it is hoped that all will keep the above evening open.

DENIES HE RUNS FOR LIQUOR INTERESTS

Mr. Alex. Lockley Offers Reward for Apprehension of Those Who Circulated Defamatory Circulars.

Mr. Alex. Lockley, candidate for the reeveship of Esquimalt, yesterday offered a reward of $50 for information leading to the conviction of those responsible for the printing or distribution of dodgers inferring that he was in league with the liquor interests.

Several dodgers, reading "Vote for Lockley and the Liquor Interests," were picked up in Esquimalt yesterday, and Mr. Lockley immediately set out to ascertain who was responsible for what he held to be an underhanded plan to prejudice the electors against him. Mr. Lockley declared that he intended to institute libel proceedings as soon as he found out who was responsible for the work.

"I have absolutely no association with the liquor interests," Mr. Lockley stated last night. "The whole scheme is framed upon falsehood with the deliberate purpose of defaming my character. I may say that personally I have been an abstainer from liquor all my life, and at no time have sought to represent or cater to the drink traffic, against which I am vigorously opposed. Last year I served on the Police Commission and during the year we received only one complaint about prohibition enforcement. I stand on my record, and am determined to see, if elected, that nothing is left undone in the effort to keep the liquor traffic in hand. In a district such as Esquimalt it has naturally been a difficult task to exercise complete control. But any suggestion that I have not done everything within my power to have the law enforced is nothing short of malicious slander."

Factory sites on the Reserve are available at a nominal rental as soon as the Johnson Street Bridge is built.

SHOW APPRECIATION OF LONG SERVICE

School Board Members in Resolution Speak Highly of Trustee Jay's Twenty Years of Continuous Work.

Appreciation of his twenty years of continuous service was shown Trustee George Jay by his fellow members of the Victoria School Board in a resolution passed by that body at a meeting last night.

In replying, Mr. Jay stated that he was unable to find words to express his appreciation of what his fellow trustees had said about him. To him it was a matter of pain to sever his connection with the service, which he had grown to love. He believed he had made many friends during that service, and it would be always a source of particular pleasure to him that he had at all times enjoyed the fullest confidence of Municipal Inspector Edward B. Paul. Mr. Jay added that he would follow the work of future boards with keen interest.

There were a number of important matters requiring attention, said the retiring member. Extension of manual training and domestic science work, and the placing of technical courses in the High School curriculum were among the needs he outlined. If his previous experience, he concluded, was thought to be of value he would be only too glad to render any aid possible in an advisory capacity.

Trustees Clarence B. Deaville and R. W. Perry, who are also retiring, came in for eulogistic remarks from their fellow trustees, Mr. Deaville's work as chairman of the finance committee receiving special praise.

Council of Public Instruction Informs School Board Proposal to Allow Chairman Ballot Contrary to Act.

"It is the opinion of the Council that the proposed amendment giving the chairman a right to ballot on the appointment of teachers is inconsistent with Section 42 of the School Act."

This is the reply of the Council of Public Instruction in regard to a proposed amendment to the by-laws of the Victoria School Board presented to the government body for approval. The decision is embodied in a letter from Mr. S. J. Wills, secretary of the Council of Public Instruction, received by the School Board at its meeting last night. The document was placed in the minutes so that the incoming Board might be informed as to the decision of the Council and deal with the matter as it saw fit.

ARMENIAN HORRORS TOLD IN PICTURE

"Auction of Souls" at Royal Victoria Next Week Depicts Terrible Story of Unspeakable Turks' Brutality.

How Christian women were sold at auction into Turkish harems for as low as 85 cents in money; how they were burned and even crucified on rude crosses of wood, will be shown next week at the Royal, when the big picturization of "Ravished Armenia," rechristened, "Auction of Souls," opens for a four-day engagement next Monday.

The story is a terrible one, but a true one. It is the actual life experiences of the little Armenian girl Aurora Mardiganian, who escaped and finally made her way to America to tell her tragic story of how over half a million Armenian women and girls fell victims to the blood lust of the terrible Turks.

No less personages than Henry Morganthau, American Ambassador to Turkey, and our own British investigator, Viscount James Bryce, have, in their official reports, substantiated and authenticated every incident that is shown in the big eight-reel production.

Miss Mardiganian, accompanied by her guardian, Mrs. J. P. Anderson, will appear every afternoon and night and describe from the stage her experiences. She is but eighteen; a mere slip of a girl, and would be a real beauty were it not for the brand placed upon her cheek by the Turks with a hot iron when she was sold into slavery.

"Auction of Souls" is a big production. It is at present playing in Vancouver, where it is breaking all records for atendance, we are told. At the conclusion of her engagement in Victoria, Miss Mardiganian will proceed direct to New York, where she will take ship for England to fill a forty weeks' engagement with her picture. It is seldom that picture-goers have an opportunity to see the heroine of a film appearing personally with the picture, and we are told that never before have they had the opportunity to see one appearing in a picturization of her own life-story. In New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston the picture was shown to society for an admission of $10 a seat.

PRINCESS THEATRE Never has a play proved so instantaneous a success as "Alice in Wonderland," at the Princess Theatre, which played to absolutely full houses at both the two initial performances on Saturday. All the seats for the matinee performance could easily have been sold three times over and the request for seats for the evening performance after the house was sold out would have filled the house again. Judging by the advance booking, which is perhaps heavier than at any previous play produced by the popular Princess Dramatic Society, every night of this week will witness capacity houses.

The reason for this is not far to seek. The theatre-going public can be depended on for knowing a good thing when it sees it, and "Alice" is packed with good things which were appreciated by the hundreds that saw it on Saturday in no unmistakable fashion. The singing of Miss Eva Hart, Corp. Maris Hale and Messrs. Bobby McKenzie, F. H. Allwood, A. M. D. Fairbairn and the others in the cast, not forgetting the magnificent blending of the chorus of picked artists; the dancing, the costumes, scenery and properties—all are perfect, and taken in conjunction with Mr. Hincks' clever adaptation and stage-management of Carroll's famous story, the success of the play was a foregone conclusion which has been confirmed in no uncertain manner.

VARIETY THEATRE Love scenes in photo-plays have become very much a matter of "Three steps forward, two to the side, meet, clinch, kiss for three feet and fade out," and the variation is largely in the length of the kiss and the number of steps. So the announcement of a new love scene, in the David Wark Griffith picture, "The Girl Who Stayed at Home," now showing at the Variety Theatre, is refreshing if nothing else. Mr. Griffith is a master at doing old things in new ways, so it is not surprising that he should play a love scene in a way no one else has ever thought of.

COLUMBIA THEATRE The modern doughboy has an excellent opportunity to see how his predecessors of '90 fought in "Told in the Hills," Robert Warwick's new Paramount-Artcraft picture, which will be seen at the Columbia Theatre all this week. A feature of the picture is a thrilling battle on the edge of a deep canyon between a blue-clad cavalry troop and a band of Indians. The troop is trapped in the canyon and about to be annihilated when they are saved in a novel manner by "Genesee" Jack Stuart, the character played by Major Warwick, "The Midnight Man" featuring Gentleman Jim" J. J. Corbett is the double bill at the Columbia all this week.

ROYAL VICTORIA The latest Goldwyn picture, "Lord and Lady Algy," in which smiling Tom Moore is starred, will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre for the last time today. An unusually capable cast has been selected to support the star, the leading feminine role being assumed by Naomi Childers. Miss Childers, who was voted the most beautiful screen actress in Japan, is perfectly cast as the stately wife of the young Lord Algy, whose love for horse racing brings about his financial ruin. She is an actress who knows the value of restraint; and in the role of a titled Englishwoman reveals the cold exterior which covers but cannot quite conceal a warm nature.

DOMINION THEATRE Billie Burke, the popular stage and screen star, was never more charming than in her latest Paramount-Artcraft picture, "The Misleading Widow," which is at the Dominion Theatre for a week's run. This picture, which was adapted from a well-known three-act play by F. Tennyson Jesse, relates the amusing story of Mrs. Betty Taradine, whose husband deserted her soon after their marriage because of her extravagance. She becomes financially embarrassed, and, to meet her debts, announces the death of her husband. Subsequently he turns up as a returned army captain, and complications come thick and fast. Matters are finally adjusted in a most delightful manner. James L. Crane is the handsome "deceased" husband.

PANTAGES THEATRE Women only will be admitted to the Friday matinee at the Pantages. At that performance, Prince of Jovedah de Radjah and his company of seers, whose almost unbelievable power of thought transference and divination have become the talk of Victoria since his arrival on Monday, will answer those intimate questions which are of such interest to women, but might not be asked were there to be men in the audience. Any question of affairs of the heart, affairs of business, about lost relatives or friends, asked of the prince or his assistant, will be instantly repeated by Princess Olga, on the stage, many feet from the marvelous Hindoos, and the answer given. Not one question asked of them so far this week has seemingly been answered amiss.

ROMANO THEATRE The Universal Super Serial "Elmo, the Mighty" featuring the great Elmo Lincoln, the man who startled the world in "Tarzan of the Apes," is the bill at the Romano today for the balance of the week. Grace Cunard is the support. Risking life and limb, defying death at every turn, you will see the giant star of this wonderful new serial in stunts that you never dreamed any human being would dare to attempt. It's the serial gripping, the serial entertaining, bringing you newer and greater thrills than you've witnessed in months. If you saw "Tarzan of the Apes" you will recall Elmo Lincoln as "Tarzan." If you saw "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," you will recall Lincoln as the giant Belgian blacksmith.

MILITARY MEDAL FOR SERVICE RECEIVED

Mr. Alex. Swainson, Employee of Colonist Bindery Department, Receives Decoration Awarded in March, 1918.

Mr. Alex. Swainson, an employee in The Colonist bindery, has just received the Military Medal which was awarded him in March, 1918.

The recipient of the coveted honor was born in Liverpool, England, and came to Vancouver in April, 1911, reaching Victoria in January of the following year to enter the employ of The Colonist bindery department. He had been with the firm until the time that he enlisted four years ago for service overseas as a private in the 62nd Battalion, and was on duty almost continuously from that time until the end of the war, being at the last with the transport section of the 29th Battalion.

Mr. Swainson is well known in the city, and has for some time been prominently identified with young men's work in the First Presbyterian Church. On his return to the city from overseas he was elected to eldership in the church, but modestly declined the honor for the present.

His home is at 1324 Denman Street, the family consisting of his wife and infant son in addition to himself.

Use Cocoanut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, and this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy, and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

WARNING ISSUED BY THE PATRIOTIC FUND

Severe Measures to Be Taken Where Undeserving Men Apply for Relief Under "Unemployment Dole."

The trustees appointed in Victoria for the distribution of the Patriotic Fund to returned men find it necessary again to give a warning to applicants. No returned man who is unable to find work need fear that either himself or his family will lack for food, clothing or fuel during the Winter months, and while work is difficult to find.

Unfortunately a number of cases have occurred where advantage has been taken of the country's generosity. Men have applied and obtained relief who were in work—others have applied who can get work if they wish to do so, but prefer to make a dishonest declaration and live on the fund if possible. It is regrettable that cases like these have occurred.

Relief, to be relief, should be prompt, but nevertheless investigation follows in every case; and, as stated, dishonesty of purpose has been found. The trustees wish it be known that severe measures will be taken in future in cases of this kind. The responsibility—an unpaid one—is upon them to see that the fund is distributed as intended, amongst those who, through no fault of their own, are in need of it; and not amongst those who make their military service an excuse to defraud the country.

Happily the cases so far are very rare, and it may be that the seriousness of the offence is not realized.

Victoria will grow industrially as soon as the Johnson Street Bridge is built.

FOR REEVE

To the Ratepayers of Esquimalt Municipality:

At the request of numerous residents in the Municipality, I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Reeve at the election to be held on the 17th inst.

I am in favor of retrenchment in municipal financial matters, and would advocate that during the present financial depression only schemes that are absolutely necessary for the judicious development of the municipality should be undertaken. At this period of the world's history it behooves all people and municipalities to conserve as well as increase the production of their resources.

I favor a conference between the Corporation and the B.C. Electric Railway Company, having for its object an equitable adjustment of the transfers and fares charged by the said Company.

I also favor a stronger effort being made to reach a fair settlement as to the rights and liabilities of the Esquimalt Waterworks Co. in regard to insuring for the ratepayers of the Municipality a proper and sufficient head of water for fire protection.

If elected, I undertake to devote my best efforts in the interests of the Municipality. I do not propose to canvass any voter. I have no committees or other organization to procure my election, and leave the issue solely to your best judgment.

Yours truly,

JOHN JARDINE.

LABOR'S APPEAL

To the Electors:

In the spirit of SERVICE, we, the nominees of the Trades and Labor Council, tender you our assistance in the solution of the several problems which concern our common citizenship. We feel that the general interest will be advanced by the frank recognition of Labor's right to fair and proportional representation in the Council Chamber. The prosperity of Victoria is inextricably woven with the well-being of its industrial toilers. Any solution of civic problems which ignores their viewpoint is foredoomed to inevitable failure. We therefore appeal to you to afford us the opportunity to contribute our quota to the happy solution of the many problems which confront Victoria—Our Home City.

SAYS REEVESHIP IS FULL-TIME JOB

Retiring Reeve Jones of Saanich Claims Present Municipal Form of Government Could Be Improved Upon.

"I believe our municipal form of government could be very much improved upon," said retiring Reeve Jones of Saanich to the ratepayers of Ward 4 on Tuesday night in Strawberry Vale Hall. "Generally I believe in the manager form of government unless you have a good reeve. I believe that the council should choose a chairman and let him devote his whole time to the job. It is useless unless he does. It takes months to master the host of details, which are ever growing. I believe that the reeve should spend his whole time in the interests of the municipality, and should be paid accordingly.

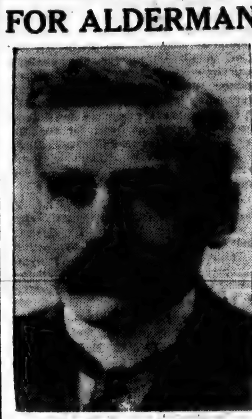

"I believe also," continued the Reeve, "that the school board should be in closer touch with the council. There should be councillors on the board." He added that last year Councillor Watson, who is the Reeve-elect, was a school trustee also and served as a connecting link. Municipal Clerk Cowper also proved invaluable in keeping the council in touch with school affairs.

Reeve Jones stated that he was leaving the council in order to devote his time to a co-operative building scheme, for the welfare of Saanich. "We will build for sale and for the purpose of quelling a fire which is burning in this country today," he went on. "It is slow burning and it is smothering. I am trying to quell it by getting the workingmen to take stock in a co-operative concern and derive profits from it."

In thanking the people of Saanich for making him Reeve he said: "I will always look back upon it as the greatest honor ever bestowed upon me."

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head and ear noises or are growing hard of hearing, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

ADENOIDS CAUSE MUCH MONETARY LOSS

Mr. Dooley Tells Saanich Ratepayers Lack of Treatment of Children Causes Yearly Loss of Four Thousand Dollars.

Making the statement that Saanich was losing $4,000 a year through school children being held back in their studies by defects which should have medical attention, Mr. Tom Dooley, representative on the Saanich Council of the Victorian Order of Nurses, pleaded on Tuesday night before the Strawberry Vale ratepayers for the passing of the Health Centre by-law, which comes before the voters on Saturday.

One-third of the children examined in Saanich had proved defective, the speaker stated. Adenoids held children back from six to eighteen months in their studies, and through such deterrents the municipality was loser financially. As medical attention was too expensive, parents did not have their children attended to when instructed by the doctor. The Health Centre would be a municipal hospital in which children could be attended to, old men and women taken care of and maternity cases handled.

Mr. Dooley advocated eventually state control of hospitals and the medical profession. He hoped that the Saanich Health Centre would prove the thin edge of the wedge for a nation-wide movement.

The speaker took exception to the statements made by Premier Oliver at the Metchosin Fair in regard to the need of looking after the calves and what the Government was doing to keep up the standard of cattle. "Certain people think more of cattle than of children," he added, stating that the Premier had told a deputation from the B.C. Hospital Association when the delegation asked for hospital aid, that there were too many drains on the treasury.

"Any man who supports cattle and not children, should be removed," declared Mr. Dooley.

"The children of Saanich are not your children or my children," said the speaker in conclusion. "They are the children of the state. If the state can call them to war, then it can look after them when they are children."

Reeve Jones supported Mr. Dooley, saying that in his opinion the Health Centre would be no more expensive than keeping patients in the city hospital.

Ten Minutes' Home Treatment Works Wonders, Stops Falling Hair and Dandruff and Makes the Hair Soft, Brilliant, Lustrous and Fluffy.

Better than all the so-called "hair tonics" in the world is a simple, old-fashioned home recipe consisting of plain Bay Rum, Lavona (de Composee) and a little Menthol Crystals. These three, mixed at home in a few minutes, work wonders with any scalp. Try it just one night and see. Get from your druggist 1 oz. Lavona, 6 oz. Bay Rum and ½ drachm Menthol Crystals. Dissolve the Crystals in the Bay Rum and pour in 8-oz. bottle. Then add the Lavona, shake well and let it stand for an hour before using. Apply it by putting a little of the mixture on a soft cloth. Draw this cloth slowly through the hair, taking just one small strand at a time. This cleanses the hair and scalp of dirt, dust and excessive oil and makes the hair delightfully soft, lustrous and fluffy. To stop the hair from falling and to make it grow again rub the lotion briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush. Apply night and morning. A few days' use and you will not find a single loose or straggling hair. They will be locked on your heads as tight as a vise. Dandruff will disappear. You will find fine downy new hairs sprouting up all over your scalp and this new hair will grow with wonderful rapidity.

Any druggist can sell you the above. The prescription is very inexpensive and we know of nothing so effective and certain in its results.

NEW REEVE IN FAVOR OF SAANICH HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. George Watson Outlines Scheme for Use of North Dairy School Building for First Year Work.

"We must provide our own High School accommodation," said Mr. George Watson, new Reeve of Saanich by acclamation, at a meeting held in Strawberry Vale Hall on Tuesday night. He pointed out that the city High School could no longer handle all the Saanich pupils and he outlianed a plan whereby the Cloverdale and Tillicum Schools would take the children from the North Dairy School and the latter building would be used as a High School in which first year work would be taught. This could be tried out for one year, and then probably the Provincial Government and the Saanich ratepayers would be convinced that the municipality could operate its own High School and would support any further plan accordingly.

"Will the Province give something toward a High School?" asked Mr. R. Genn. "It will," was Mr. Watson's reply. He stated that he had suggested to the Saanich School Board that it was imperative that something be done.

"While I come from a country where we are supposed to be very close, I don't propose to be niggardly," said Mr. Watson, after explaining great savings made in the operation of the schools for the past year.

"Don't you think we're paying the teachers a poor, mean salary?" queried Mr. Genn.

Mr. Watson responded that he realized that the teachers up to this year had not been getting sufficient pay, but pointed out that salaries had been increased in 1919 to a total of $9,000. A graduated scale of increases would be made for four years. He added that the salaries paid last year commanded the finest product of the Victoria Normal School.

Amusement was caused by a good natured bandying of words between Mr. Watson and a Scotch ratepayer who protested that Strawberry Vale was being forgotten. "Ye'll no' forget us again," was his final delighted comment.

WOULD SUSTAIN EFFORTS OF POLICE

Candidate for Commissioner Reiterates Views Regarding Efficiency and Integrity of Officers

Mr. George Snelling reiterates his statement that he is a candidate for Police Commissioner because he believes in keeping Victoria a clean city, and thinks this can best be done by sustaining the hands of the officials in charge of the existing police department. He deprecates the insinuations that have been thrown out impugning the integrity of the Victoria police force, an organisation against which it is mischievous to cast suspicion. The situation of Victoria as a seaport renders imperative the maintenance of a strong, alert detective department in particular, inasmuch as the arrival at irregular times and seasons of ships from all quarters of the globe makes it possible for persons of doubtful antecedents to gain entrance to the city for the purpose of plying their unlawful calling. Mr. Snelling is equally strong in his commendation of the past work of the uniformed department of the police force. He believes there is nothing superior to it on the coast or in any other part of the continent. But wherever improvements or reforms can be made in the police department the candidate, if elected, will make it his business to suggest them and to support the suggestions of others.

Mr. Justice Britton's Retirement

OTTAWA, Jan. 14.—Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, said today that he had been informed that the resignation of Hon. B. M. Britton, of the Supreme Court of Ontario, had reached his department, but that it had not yet come before the cabinet council.

Johnson Street Bridge By-Law

In last night's Times, Mayor Porter takes exception to my remark at High School, Tuesday evening, that City Council was not unanimous in connection with Johnson Street Bridge by-law.

If my remark was incorrect it is most strange that the Mayor and Aldermen present did not unanimously contradict me on the spot, instead of the Mayor waiting to make the statement next day in a newspaper interview.

If I had been contradicted I would have asked a few questions, and either have established my point or have withdrawn it.

Upon looking up records this evening I find my remark was based on the fact that, on November 28, when the City Council decided to ratify agreement with C.P.R., six members of the Council voted for and five members voted against. This is a 55 per cent vote.

The point I wished to make on Tuesday evening was that the City Council had not sufficient faith in the chief feature of the by-law, the agreement with the railway, to pass it by the 60 per cent vote required of the people.

The moment of adoption of this agreement by the Council, was the crucial time of the whole by-law, and the questions and explanations I would have asked would have been centred upon that.

The Bulkley Valley

Sir,—To trace a mighty river back to its source amidst the distant hills is the most interesting undertaking but often it is a most difficult task as Alexander Mackenzie and Simon Fraser found out more than a century ago, but so far as the Skeena and the Bulkley Rivers are concerned the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway has made this journey now an easy matter, as this railway follows this water grade to the Bulkley summit.

Out of Bulkley Lake near the summit there flows a little stream called the South Bulkley River. One of the finest cattle ranches in Central British Columbia is situated on both sides of the South Bulkley River just where it flows out of Bulkley Lake. Because of the depth of this lake the water flowing out of it seems too warm to freeze even when it is forty below zero. On a cold frosty morning I saw cattle standing up to their knees in this stream freely drinking. Meadow lands stretching far and wide with streams flowing through them make this a fine cattle country. Years ago when I first tramped with a pack on my back over the trail across William Clarke's meadows the railway did not pass his front door as it does now. The settlers were then few and far between, but things are changing and last Sunday it was my privilege to open the first church ever erected in the South Bulkley Valley.

It is nearly fourteen years since at my request the Rev. F. L. Stephenson became the first resident clergyman in the whole Bulkley Valley between Moricetown and Burns Lake, a distance of over a hundred miles. With such a vast distance to cover and only trails to follow he was able to hold only an occasional service in Mr. Clarke's house. When later this territory was divided by me, first the Rev. Wm. Sweetnam, and then the Rev. Wm. Crarey continued the work, holding more frequent services in Mr. Clarke's house. Last August the Rev. Arthur Garlick, straight from Cambridge, England, was appointed to take charge of the South Bulkley Mission and the time was deemed ripe to do something in the way of erecting a church building. A suitable site was secured by me from David Gibb of Prince Rupert, and the Anglican Synod of Caledonia advanced the money to purchase all the material required, and pay for a superintending carpenter. Sixteen sturdy pioneers turned out for a working bee, the women providing the midday meal, and soon under the leadership of Mr. B. Keddie the exterior of the building was sufficiently completed to allow us to open it last Sunday. Mr. Garlick assisted me in the service and Mrs. Garlick played the piano which was kindly lent for the occasion by Mrs. Horning. Mr. and Mrs. Call presented their little daughter June for baptism, and the forty people present fully realised that the opening of the first church of any denomination in this valley was an historic event.

Under pioneer conditions it has always been my policy to make such a building a church hall, rather than set it apart exclusively for religious worship, anything of a helpful and uplifting character being permitted to take place in it. What is for the good of men must be to the glory of God.

The day following the opening service several meetings were held in this building. In the afternoon there was a meeting of the Farmers' Institute, a meeting of the Stock Breeders' Association, and a meeting of the school supporters when arrangements were made for the first public school in this district to open in this building. In the evening there was a Christmas tree with songs, recitations, and games when fifty people, young and old, thoroughly enjoyed themselves. One woman who lived many miles from her nearest woman neighbor said to me with a smile breaking over her careworn face that it was the first bit of pleasure she had known in several years.

No wonder that in my closing address I could honestly say that I rejoiced to see how in the last two days this church building had already become a true community centre, and could earnestly urge them to remember that the function of the Christian religion is to bind all people and all classes together in brotherly love and mutual service.

Archbishop of Caledonia.

Golf Course By-law

Sir,—The citizens of Victoria who are entitled to vote on money by-laws will have an opportunity on the 15th instant of casting their ballots for or against a by-law which if carried will enable the city to borrow ($20,000) twenty thousand dollars for the purpose of laying out golf links in the Municipality of Oak Bay.

I have noticed that our daily papers are advocating the passing of this by-law, and one of the reasons put forth in support of it is that the spending of this money will relieve the unemployment situation to some extent, and this contention I believe will be generally conceded. But, Sir, if it is deemed necessary to borrow money to relieve the labor situation, let us do so, and spend it on needed improvements within the city limits.

Among a number of things that have been neglected, or left undone, because it is stated there is no money in the city treasury for such purposes is, the cleaning up and beautifying of Ontario Street from Montreal Street to the Outer Docks. This street was paved about six or seven years ago and spaces left for boulevards. These spaces are today as they were left when the paving was completed, piled up with broken rock, and in a generally dilapidated condition. From St. Lawrence Street to the Outer Docks the street is not paved, and in Summer the wild burdock and other noxious weeds flourish luxuriously. The condition of this street is a disgrace, especially to a city that is making a strong bid for the tourist trade, and I can imagine that tourists and others arriving at our city for the first time via the Outer Docks and Ontario Street, will not have very favorable first impressions.

When the City Fathers are approached on these matters the reply is "There is no money in the city treasury for this purpose." There are many other places that could be mentioned, where public money could be spent to good advantage, and at the same time relieve the unemployment situation, and one would not have to go far from the City Hall to find them.

I trust that the already overburdened taxpayer, who has been struggling to save his property from a tax sale, and who, in some cases has had his property confiscated through the unrighteous taxes that have been placed upon him through ill-considered borrowings, often against his wishes, and whose hard-earned dollar has barely today the purchasing power of 50 cents in pre-war times, will go to the polls on the 15th instant and vote the Golf Course By-law under, where it belongs, by a very large majority.

J. C. FOOTE.

147 Ontario Street, Victoria, B. C., Jan. 14, 1920.

Labor in Politics

Sir,—As an ordinary citizen unconnected with any trade or labor organisation, may I be permitted to express the sincere hope that when the results of the civic election are declared it will be found that the three Labor candidates for the City Council and the Labor candidate for School Trustee have been elected. During the period of reconstruction through which we are passing it seems to me that it is essential to our successful dealing with many of the problems offered that we have in our council room a due proportion of those who can directly place before us the viewpoint of Labor. The importance of the worker as an essential member of the community is now thoroughly realized, and the election of his chosen representative to participate in the discussion and settlement of the affairs of the city offers to many and obvious advantages that it is to be hoped the electors will not fail to grasp the opportunity thus afforded them. The election of Messrs. Dewar, Siverts, Woodward and Pike will spell for unity of counsel and action in the administration of our civic business, and it is unity that, of all things, we need most at the present time.

Johnson Street Bridge

Sir,—As a taxpayer of the city of Victoria, I am indeed grieved to know that we still have a few knockers left. Mr. Editor, what has made Seattle what it is today? United efforts of all classes, regardless of color, religion, profession. They all claim that there is only one Seattle. What has made Vancouver what it is today? The same cause. All pull for Vancouver. Victoria is always in the background. Why? Because we have a few growlers, grouchers, knockers, pessimists and "what not."

Now, Sir, is it not time that we should awaken to our senses, and the responsibility we owe to ourselves and the beautiful city of Victoria, to try and make it what she is justly entitled to, namely, a city of commerce, a city for tourists, a city for retired capitalists, a city for all. Let us all unite and knock the knocker, and vote for Johnson Street bridge bylaw.

LEWIS HALL, ex-Mayor.

502 Catherine Street, Victoria, B.C., January 14, 1920.

The Golf Links By-Law

Sir,—Overhearing this morning that an objection expressed by some working men to the Municipal Golf Links By-Law was centered around the misstatement that the upper classes desired the passage of the by-law for their own benefit and amusement, might I be permitted to point out that most of the employers or those occupying influential positions in our community are already members of one or more of the three local private golf clubs?

It is, therefore obvious that the establishment of a municipal golf course would not affect them save in the same manner that every citizen would directly or indirectly be beneficially affected through Victoria becoming more popular with homeseekers and tourists for whom there is all too little amusement.

Increased population is a sure relief for acute taxation. Many residents will come to Victoria to retire enter business. Get them here. Encourage them to stay.

I only wish to deal with this one particular phase of the matter, which I trust will satisfactorily dispose of the fallacy that the project in question is intended to benefit any particular class.

ERNEST J. DOWN.

The Bridge By-Law

Sir,—A great amount has been published for and against the proposed Johnson Street bridge, but there is one argument which appears to have been lost sight of entirely, viz, if the bridge by-law is defeated what are the alternatives? A great many would answer an independent city bridge at the foot of Yates Street, without considering that two bridges across the harbor so close together would form an insurmountable obstruction to navigation, and, in my opinion, would never be allowed. The second alternative, the present bridges and roads afford so many obstructions against the development of the former Indian Reserve that it is unnecessary to go into details.

Mr. Lockley's Reply

Sir,—Mr. Jardine seems to think that he cannot win this election on a straight municipal fight, so he tries to unearth a mare's nest in relation to some contracts which I am supposed to have with the municipality for building houses for soldiers. I understand he has spent considerable time in the Municipal Hall at Esquimalt, with is lawyer, looking into the point, and now in order to raise a doubt in the minds of the electors he published a copy of his letter on the subject to the municipal authorities. Well, I think I recognise the old tricks. These red herrings have been drawn too often at the last moment to have any effect on your votes. Let me say that I have not any contracts with the municipality. The contracts which I have entered into in writing pertaining to the erection of these houses are with the soldiers individually and not with the municipality, so that should settle it. In case it should not be sufficient for some doubting voters, I may say I have referred the matter to two lawyers and they tell me the claim raised by Mr. Jardine is a myth and cannot be supported by the facts in the case.

Of course, I realize that I am handicapped in this election by having to fight an old-time politician who is familiar with all the many fine points in the game. Personally, I should think that you, ladies and gentlemen, are more interested in the main issues of the campaign than in such mythical matters.

I may again I have no contracts with the municipality.

Attacking Religion

Sir,—At a recent meeting of the Federated Labor Party in the city, one of the speakers is reported to have made a vicious attack upon the Roman Catholic Church, in the course of an address on "The Church and Labor."

If the Federated Labor Party is seriously in earnest in its effort to bring about the re-creation of society upon a humanitarian basis, it will be well advised to refuse its platform to men harboring obsessions concerning religion and who use the same platform as a means of publicly venting their spleen on a particular church. It is a regrettable fact that in Federated Labor Party, as well as in other organizations, there are men whose ideas are distinctly anti-religious—anti-Christian—and therefore, in the ultimate, anti-social. No organization which professes to work for the betterment of social conditions can ever hope to succeed so long as it takes into its counsels and accords the privilege of its platform to men whose faith is frankly based upon materialism. It is well-known that there are many in the ranks of the reform movement who are openly hostile to religion in any form and whose social and economic doctrines are founded upon a theory, the "rationalistic projection of history," long since discarded by philosophers of repute.

These persistent attacks by prejudiced people upon the Roman Catholic Church have become so tiresome as to be nauseating. The humanitarian efforts and the splendid spirit of self-sacrifice envinced by so many of her devoted members both now and in the past should inspire the highest admiration rather than abuse. Besides it is manifestly absurd to judge an organization by the inconsistencies of some of its members.

In order that the charge of being biased may not be preferred against me, I may state that I do not belong to the church which was the object of Mr. Macdonald's attack.

"They Gave Their Lives"

Sir,—It is a phrase that is used daily, "They gave their lives," and I thought perhaps it might help some of those who in the war lost their dear one if you would publish a part of a letter given automatically to me by a Victoria soldier who fell at the Second Battle of Ypres.

"Men are coming to the realization that spirit is the great force, and matter but its outward form. The unseen forces are the real ones, love, honor, purity, goodness, freedom, truth. It was to preserve these on the earth that men gave up their bodies—but not their lives—our life is eternal. We have simply gone a step forward in our progress."

MRS. D. H. MORROW GAINS 15 POUNDS

Was All Run-Down After the Flu, But Is Like Different Person Now.

"I have gained 15 pounds in weight since I began taking Tanlac and the improvement in my physical condition has been so great I feel like a new person," said Mrs. David H. Morrow, 74 Forty-first Avenue, Vancouver, B. C., recently. Continuing, she said:

"Last Winter I had a bad attack of the flu, which left me badly run-down, and as I had also been suffering with a severe stomach trouble for the past year my condition was indeed bad. My appetite was so poor that I did not even care to look at anything to eat and the little I did manage to force down lay so heavy on my stomach it felt just like a lump of lead. Gas would form and press against my heart, which would palpitate dreadfully, and I had a choking sensation after every meal, just like there was something in my throat I could neither get up nor down. I had intense pains in the small of my back, which were so bad I could hardly stoop over, and I had a splitting headache all the time, and at times my head would hurt so bad I would nearly go wild. My nerves were in such bad condition even the children playing would completely upset me, and what sleep I got did not seem to do me a particle of good, and I always got up in the morning feeling worse than when I went to bed. I also suffered with constipation so bad I had to always be taking some sort of laxative. I had lost weight until I was very weak and felt so tired and worn out all the time it was with the greatest effort I could do my housework.

"I was in this condition when I started taking Tanlac, and I began to improve right away. It has now been two months since I have taken any, but I am feeling just fine. I have a splendid appetite and eat anything I want without any bad after effects, the pain has left my back and I have not had a headache since taking the first few doses of Tanlac. My nerves are in fine condition and I have regained my strength so I can do my housework with the greatest ease. Tanlac is certainly a grand medicine, and I am only too glad to say a good word for it."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, Druggist. (Advt.)

VANCOUVER URGES P.G.E. COMPLETION

VANCOUVER, Jan. 14.—A resolution calling upon the Provincial Government to complete the Pacific Great Eastern to the ultimate terminus, Swan Lake, within two years, was carried by the Board of Trade at the meeting last evening. A motion was also passed calling for the selection of a special committee to go to Victoria as soon as convenient to urge the completion of this work by the government. Chris Spencer, chairman of the board, will select the committee.

Hon J. W. deB. Farris, Provincial Attorney-General, was present at the meeting, listening with considerable interest to the reading of the report of the special P. G. E. committee of the Board of Trade which for some time has been making an exhaustive study of the situation.

In their report of the special committee contained the following recommendation:

"Having received the assurance of the Honorable John Oliver, Premier of British Columbia, that the P.G.E. will be completed this year (1920), as far as Prince George, we desire the board to place itself on record in appreciation of the prompt action of the government in arranging the completion of the road to this point."

PRESBYTERY GETS REPORT ON DANCING

MONTREAL, Jan. 14.—A committee of the Montreal Presbytery declared a report at the Knox Crescent Presbyterian Church yesterday on the question whether dancing may be indulged in by Presbyterians.

The report states that the attitude of the church is to leave the matter to the individual judgment and conscience, and the committee considered that this attitude should not be departed from. A note of warning is sounded as to "certain types of dancing, the propriety of the moral tendency of which it is open a serious doubt and which are offensive to the conscience of the members of the church."

INSTALLED OFFICERS FOR THREE LODGES

Grand Master Workman E. Pope, of Port Hammond, Officiated at A.O.U.W. Ceremony in K. of C. Hall.

The ceremony of installing officers for their three Victoria lodges took a large number of members of the Ancient Order of United Workmen to their rooms, K. of C. Hall, Fort Street, last night. Following the formal part of the proceedings, which occupied about an hour in the early part of the evening, there was a concert programme, the musical numbers being alternated with dances arranged especially for the benefit of the young people, and for which Brother Jack Young supplied the music. Supper was served, the three lodges uniting in the "provisioning," which was excellently managed, and the evening terminated as it had begun in the very happiest way.

District Deputy Master Workman Alec Stewart presided, and the installation of officers for each of the three local lodges for the ensuing year was carried out by the Grand Master Workman, E. Pope, of Port Hammond, Sister Workmen as well as Brother Workmen were present at the installation as well as for the purely social part of the proceedings. In all twenty-seven officers were installed, nine for each lodge, as follows:

Victoria Lodge No. 1—Bro. F. Partridge as master workman; Bro. A. Jones, foreman; sister Barker, overseer; Sister Anderson, recording secretary; Bro. F. Davey, financial secretary; Bro. Wrigglesworth, treasurer; Sister Wrigglesworth, past master workman.

Vancouver Lodge No. 5—Bro. Jelleigh, master workman; Bro. J. Pulling, foreman; Bro. G. Pulling, overseer; Bro. Northcott, recording secretary; Bro. McIlmoyl, financial secretary; Bro. Scowcroft, treasurer.

New Westminster Lodge No. 7—Bro. Somerville, master workman; Bro. Stewart, foreman; Bro. C. Stewart, overseer; Bro. Shakespeare, recording secretary; Bro. Clunk, financial secretary; Bro. Semple, treasurer.

During the past six months the three lodges in Victoria have put through about one hundred candidates, Victoria Lodge No. 1 alone having initiated between sixty and one hundred. Some new candidates were initiated last night.

Following the ceremony there was a short address by Grand Master Workman, the lighter part of the programme beginning immediately at the conclusion of his remarks. Among those who contributed solos during the evening were Bros. Jones, Attwell, Owen, Welch and Roberts, and Bro. Semple gave a much appreciated recitation.

DETECTIVES PAMPERED CLAIMS MR. A. M. GREGG

Candidate for Police Commissionership Apparently Has Animus Against Plain Clothes Branch

Further evidence of alleged ulterior motives on the part of the detective department, and the members of which, he appears to be making an issue in his campaign for the office of Police Commissioner, has been adduced by Mr. A. M. Gregg, candidate for that office at the present municipal fight.

Mr. Gregg, in an interview given to the afternoon paper, blames the Detective Department for the alleged lack of harmony in police circles, declares the members of the plain clothes force are "pampered," and refers to his "three years' public service" as having posted him upon real conditions—conditions which he is endeavoring to lay bare to the gaze of an interested public.

Mr. Gregg lays special emphasis upon the fact that the annual report of Detective Inspector George M. Perdue, in its alleged wilful omission to make mention of the recent murder of Mrs. Simmons about two months ago. He argues, therefore, that the report, in its reference to crime committed in the city last year, was misleading. He would appear to infer that there was some mtoive behind this omission.

Detective Inspector Perdue, referring to Mr. Gregg's strictures upon the department and the report, stated last evening that he regretted to see the candidate for the office of Police Commissioner had apparently seen fit to go out of his way in his criticisms of the plain clothes branch. His report, he stated, purported to cover only those cases of crime with which the detective department was actively associated. In the Simmons case the department did not come into the case until after the murder, and as the murderer disposed of himself, there was no call for investigation, as there would have been had it been a case of hunting for a fugitive from justice. The case was disposed of by the coroner's jury, and never reached the detective department. No doubt the case would be referred to in the chief's annual report covering the years' criminal record.

"But it is most regrettable that at this stage Mr. Gregg should see fit to bring forward for public attention again an incident which cannot but have the most painful recollections for the friends and relatives of the murdered woman, and do so for the sole purpose of securing for himself some petty advantage in his candidature for public office," said the inspector.

SHIPPING MEN BAND TO HOLD BUSINESS

Japanese Realize That They Will Lose Wartime Position Unless They Make Some Effort to Retain Trade.

Japan's shipping stands to lose as much by the restoration of the world's shipping to normal conditions as it gained during the war. The process is now going on, and special measures must be taken to retain the trade won during the war and to further promote Japan's world interests.

This view is taken by prominent shipping men in Kobe. Mr. Masuo Minowa, of the Yamashita Kisen Kaisha, and a number of other leading figures in Japan's shipping world have arranged to establish a society called the Kaisei Kai (Marine Administrative Society).

In a manifesto just published, the sponsors of the new society say, though the war has made Japan one of the world's most important countries in the shipping trade, it is doubtful whether the facts justify so much international importance being given to the shipping of this country. Japan has, perchance been enabled to develop her carrying trade thanks to the world war, but if proper steps are not taken both by the authorities and the shipping men concerned, she will find it difficult to retain her position.

Therefore it is proposed, continues the manifesto, that as many men as possible interested in the country's shipping trade be assembled in order to discuss and consider ways and means for the promotion of the trade. It is hoped that the proposed society will be able to send its representatives to the Diet so that the true wishes of the shipping men can be embodied in the policy of the government.

The promoters of the Kaisei Kai expect to hold a meeting about January 20, for the formal establishment of the society. For the time being Mr. Kuniichi Sato and Mr. Heisaburo Takemoto will act as secretaries of the proposed society.

How to Keep Age-Lines and Wrinkles Away

Don't forget that the woman who smiles will have a skin more free from wrinkles than the woman who frowns. When wrinkles begin to appear it is a good plan to bathe the face once a day for awhile in a harmless solution made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. This is remarkably effective in erasing the hateful lines, not only because of its astringent action which tightens the skin and thus irons out the lines, but also because of a helpful tonic effect which improves capillary circulation and nerve tone. There is nothing better for flabby cheeks or chin. Be sure to ask the druggist for the powdered saxolite.

CROWN OF GALICIA IN AFTER LONG RUN

Harrison Boat Makes Port From United Kingdom—Fire Broke Out at Canal and Again Later.

The Harrison Line freighter Crown of Galicia tied up at the Outer Docks yesterday morning at 10:30 from the United Kingdom. The vessel caught fire while passing through the Canal. It was believed that the flames had been conquered by the fireboats at Panama, but after getting well away from the Zone Capt. Baird found that the fire had broken out again, and made San Pedro as soon as possible. There everything was made safe, and the vessel went to San Francisco where she discharged part of her cargo. She then continued up the coast to Victoria.

Capt. W. H. Logan made a survey of the Galicia on her arrival here, but found no damage done to the boat through the fire. The damaged cargo was taken off at San Francisco.

SALVAGE JOBS FEW FOR LOCAL CONCERN

Some Five Months Since Pacific Salvage Company Used Algerine—Steam Up at All Times on Boat.

The Pacific Salvage Company has not had a salvage job for some five months, the last one being the saving of the Japanese liner Shinbu Maru, which struck near Race Rocks and almost sank while trying to reach an American port.

According to Government regulations under which a Federal grant is given steam must be kept up in the Algerine at all times. This means a coal consumption of about a ton a day. The salvage company also maintains a staff of about 20 men ready for work at any time.

ENORMOUS CHARGES

Shipping men who have had reason to express amazement over charges for labor in connection with their vessels in this port need hardly expect that labor hiring concerns at other ports of the United States know little about multiplication and addition. For instance, it is said that from Baltimore has come a bill for $933 for sweeping out the hold of a 4,200-ton steamer, that arrived from Europe with some sand ballast, and for removing dunnage.—"Shipping," New York.

WASHINGTON HAD SLOW TRIP DOWN

The Cholberg schooner Washington has reported from the Panama Canal 70 days out. Calms off the Canal held the ship up, making her passage a slow one. Her sister schooner, Gunn, made the trip in 53 days. West Hartlepool is the destination of the Washington, which carries a load of lumber.

RUSSIA AT HEAD

The Empress of Russia reached William Head about eight-thirty last evening and lay at anchor until this morning when she will procure pratique and come up to the Outer Docks.

Before the war Japan produced about 50,000 tons of shipping a year. Her capacity has now increased to about 700,000 tons. In spite of this great development of her shipping trade, the only new provision that has been made for the supply of ship's officers and engineers is the opening of a mercantile marine school by Mr. Kawasaki, of Kobe. The result is that a shortage of seamen is being keenly felt. It is now reported that Mr. Katsuda, Mr. Uchida and Mr. Kawachi, all prominent shipowners in Kobe, have arranged to open a new mercantile training school in that city.

The Dominion Government will build a Marine Store's Building as soon as the Johnson Street Bridge is built.

SEASON'S LOSSES ON GREAT LAKES

Seventy-four Lives and Nineteen Ships Toll—Greatest Since 1913—Lake Superior Experienced Most Losses.

The life and property loss on the Great Lakes the past season included 74 lives and 19 ships and was the greatest since 1913, when 29 vessels, valued at $3,312,000, with capacity of 121,000 tons, passed out of existence, and 254 lives were lost, mostly in the big gale of November 9 to 11.

The greatest loss of life during last season was on Lake Superior, when the steamer John Owen, with a crew of 22, and the steamer Myron, with 17 men, went down, leaving only one survivor. Many lives were lost when the passenger steamer City of Muskegon went to pieces.

The steamer Homer Warren was lost on Lake Ontario, with a crew of nine and seven lives were lost on the barges Dundurn and Quebec, which were wrecked on Lake Erie and at Port Colborne.

The greatest property loss was on the steamer R. D. Hanna, which was sunk in Lake Huron last May in collision with the steamer Quincy A. Shaw. The Hanna, which had a carrying capacity of 10,200 tons, was insured for $430,000. She had a cargo of 380,000 bushels of wheat. The Hanna was the only modern ship lost in 1919.

Next to the Hanna the barge Chicamaugha, which foundered on Lake Huron, was the largest freighter lost. Her capacity was 4,200 tons. The other vessels lost carried from 500 to 3,500 tons.

The boats that were lost in 1919 were valued at $1,336,500. Their trip capacity was 47,250 tons, and figuring 20 trips for each, they could move $45,000 tons in a season.

BELLE ISLE FAMILIES NEAR STARVATION

SYDNEY, N. S., Jan. 14.—Snatched from starvation by the seamanship and daring of the crew of the Newfoundland steamer Seal, two families from the Belle Isle lighthouse colony arrived at North Sydney yesterday, en route to their homes in Quebec.

They were W. C. White, wife and two children, and Rouen Bouchang, wife and two children, all of whom were with the twenty persons marooned on the lonely island when the failure of the government expedition and the grounding of the steamer Aranmore exposed them to danger of death from starvation.

According to the story they told on arrival at North Sydney, the little colony had not reached the actual point of starvation when the Seal hove in sight, but they were near enough to it, as only one barrel of flour remained between them and starvation. The last milch cow had been slaughtered for fresh meat, and things looked dark when the first faint trail of smoke from the Seal appeared on the horizon.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Permanently Cured

NEW BRUNSWICK LADY GIVES FULL PARTICULARS OF HER RECOVERY

There are many types of rheumatism, but none worse than inflammatory.

It was this kind that almost killed Mrs. Edw. Warman, of Kent Jct., N.B. Every known remedy she tried, different doctors gave their advice, but the disease increased.

Weak and despairing, she was at her wits' end when the remarkable cure of Thos. Calles was published. This gentleman was cured of rheumatism by "Ferrozone." Consequently Mrs. Warman used the same remedy. Here is her statement:

"For five years I have been rheumatic. I tried various forms of relief without success. The disease increased, settled in my joints and muscles; these swelled, caused excruciating pain and kept me from sleeping. My limbs and arms stiffened, my shoulders were lame and prevented me from working. Week by week I was losing strength and despaired of finding a cure. It was a happy day I heard of Ferrozone. Every day I took Ferrozone I felt better; it eased the painful joints, gave me energy and a feeling of new life. Ferrozone cured my rheumatism, cured it so that not an ache has ever returned. Even damp weather no longer affects me."

Ferrozone has power to destroy Uric Acid, neutralize and enrich the blood, and therefore does cure the worst cases. Mrs. Warman's statement proves this.

By removing the cause of the disease and building up a reserve of energy, Ferrozone is certain to cure. Sufferers, isn't it about time to stop experimenting? Ferrozone is a CURE, order today, 50c per box, or six for $2.50, sold by all dealers or direct from The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston.

It Works! Try It

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the ether discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost very little, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

STEAM LOCOMOTION DEVELOPMENT TRACED

Mr. D. O. Lewis Addresses Institute of Engineers on the Progress of Locomotion From Days of Puffing Billy.

The members of the Victoria Branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada to the number of fifty were privileged to listen to the reading of a paper on "The Developmnet of Railways" by Mr. D. O. Lewis, M.E.I.C., in the provincial library last evening.

The speaker traced the progress of locomotion from the days of the horse-hauled wagons of the collieries of England and Scotland in 1693, to the first steam propelled vehicles of Watts, Coulau, Murdock and Stevenson between 1770 and 1823.

Some of these early models of steam locomotives in use for coal transportation were in use for over fifty years, said Mr. Lewis, and grew out of the horse-hauled cars on rails. The horse-drawn wagons were unique in some respects, the train running on its edge or plate railed track, and when the train came to a downgrade it started to move of its own weight, the horses were slipped and jumped onto a low flatcar behind, riding in state behind the train until the next level, where the horses got out and worked again.

The growth of steam traction was clearly elaborated by the speaker, who told of the skepticism of the people of the country, and the laughter of the members of Parliament when the locomotive builders suggested that they would build locomotives to haul many tons at speeds of twelve to fifteen miles per hour. For a long time the railways were restricted by law to eight and nine miles an hour.

Development of Modern Rails

The development of the modern rails from wooden affairs with metal tops and flanges was traced, and the gradual adoption of metal wheels with flanges. Sleepers or ties were of stone in those days, he continued.

The paper was followed with interest by all, and admirably illustrated by lantern slides depicting the earlier models of locomotive traction. In 1825 the first official demonstration of a real locomotive hauling a string of wagons with passengers and freight was made and on this occasion a man on horseback rode ahead with a flag to signal the approach of the train.

Stevenson, who was running the locomotive, got tired of the progress at six miles an hour, and signalled the rider out of the way. It is recorded that the train attained twelve and even fifteen miles an hour in places, and the demonstration was concluded with some 600 people hanging on to all the available space on board.

At the conclusion of the address Mr. Lewis was accorded a very hearty vote of thanks.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish High Water from Low Water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower Low Water.

Esquimalt.—To find the depth of water on the sill of the Dry Dock at any tide, add 19.0 feet to the height of High Water as above given.

The Reserve becomes taxable as soon as it is used—we want the Johnson Street Bridge.

CHURCH INSURANCE SCHEME PROGRESSES

TORONTO, Jan. 14.—A Methodist fire insurance department, with an Ontario government agency license, has been started in this city. This is the first step toward a Methodist church fire insurance company, according to Rev. S. W. Dean, financial secretary for the Methodist general conference in Canada. The Methodist insurance scheme is fathered by Rev. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist church in Canada, who is said to look forward to a $30,000,000 Methodist church fire insurance company in the not distant future.

The ultimate aim is a federated fire insurance company of all the Protestant churches in the Dominion, with insurable church property of an approximate value of $100,000,000.

STOCK PRICES BEAR CONSIDERABLE LOSS

Prominent Securities Recede From Three to Ten Points Under Selling Pressure—Money Is Main Factor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The movement of prices on the Stock Exchange today was one of almost steady retrogression, prominent shares in the various speculative divisions forfeiting 2 to 10 points under persistent pressure.

Foremost reasons for the setback were provided by further signs of inflexible money conditions and reports that the local Federal Reserve Bank might deem it advisable to order another advance in interest and discount rates.

Foreign affairs were projected into the situation, and furnished an already confident bear faction with fresh ammunition. Reports of riots in Berlin were followed by new points of discount for German and Austrian exchange.

Call loans fluctuated between 8 per cent, the initial quotation, to 15 per cent in the final hour. Virtually no loans were reported in the time money market, although 8½ per cent was bid for maturities.

Almost the only hopeful feature of the session was presented by the weekly surveys of the steel industry. Excepting U.S. Steel, which was relatively steady, the mounting inquiry for finished products was without influence.

Weakness was again marked in oils, motors, steels and associated issues. Metals and a few of the unclassified specialties were comparatively firm.

Total sales amounted to 1,125,000 shares.

The reaction in the stock market extended to the bond list, Liberty issues displaying especial weakness on heavy offerings. Among internationals, the one striking feature was an advance of 1½ point in Japanese 4½ per cent bonds. Total sales, par value, aggregated $15,350,000. Old U.S. bonds unchanged on call.

MINERAL OUTPUT SHOWS SUBSTANTIAL DECLINE

Estimates Place Value of Last Year's Production in B. C. at About Thirty-four Millions

The preliminary estimate of the quantity and value of the mineral production of British Columbia in the year 1919 will shortly be issued by the Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, upon the data compiled by Provincial Mineralologist W. Fleet Robertson, whose figures are annually awaited with great interest by the mining industry of the Province.

With the exception of silver, which shows an increase in quantity and a large increase in value, and coal, the other chief minerals show a falling off in output, especially copper, the decline in the output of which meant a reduction of nearly eight millions in value.

The aggregate value of the output is estimated to be approximately twenty per cent less than that of 1918 when the value totalled $41,782,474, or approximately $34,000,000.

SUNDAY SERMON AT CENTENNIAL

The pastor, Rev. J. L. Batty, preached both morning and evening. The sermon in the morning was "Responsibility," the subject from Ex. xxxiv, 24: "I cast it into the fire and there came out this calf."

The children of Israel encamped around Mount Sinai while Moses was there with God, and when he had been away for some time the people thought he was dead. It was made known to him what was going on and when he heard the people shouting and saw them dancing around the golden calf he confronted Aaron and charged him with the responsibility for their idolatry. Aaron excused himself, saying that it was the people's fault. He confessed that he had received the golden brooches and earrings from them and then said, "I cast it into the fire and there came out this calf." It was not my fault. He would not admit of his own responsibility. The Aarons are not all dead yet. If we want this country to be a sober country we must see that the laws are carried out. People are saying prohibition is a failure. If it is, why is it? The people are responsible for the laws, but not for carrying them into effect. We are too much like Aaron. We blame nature instead of blaming ourselves. Aaron made another excuse. He said, "the people thought you were dead." It is the fashion to blame someone else, but we can't do it. We have a soul and are responsible to God, and there will come a time when we must face him. If we are true to God, we shall prefer to die than do wrong. Too many are either following the crowd or are being pushed along. Some people blame their ancestry. It has been said if you want good children begin with their grandmother and when people go wrong they lay the blame on them. They say, don't blame me, blame my ancestry. In spite of such excuses every soul is responsible to God. Has he not said "My grace is sufficient for thee."

Moses ground the golden calf to powder and strewed it on the water compelling the people to drink it as a punishment. Mr. Batty had seen a drunken man leaning against a telegraph pole. Think of a man with a soul and brains falling so low. What has he done? He has broken a law. The man was to blame, not the law. We break the laws of health and then we suffer. It would be just as reasonable for a boy to throw a stone through a window or for a girl to blame the nail that tore her dress, and then say I am not responsible. Instead of blaming the laws we should blame ourselves. Pilate washed his hands so that he might not get blamed for condemning Christ to death. If by our conduct we crucify the Son of God afresh, it will be of no use to wash our hands to cover our sin. We must be true, and brave, and honest, in the sight of God.

U.S. Wheat Statistics

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The U.S. Grain Corporation announced today that exports of wheat from July 1, 1919, to January 2, 1920, amounted to 117,462,000 bushels, as compared with 150,187,000 bushels for the same six months in the preceding year. Total stocks of wheat at mills and elevators on January 2 were 243,463,000 bushels, and the wheat receipts from farms for the week were 8,364,000 bushels. Flour produced amounted to 3,031,000 barrels.

Vancouver to Talk on Taxation

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 13.—In the near future, with the city council's approval, Mayor Gale proposes to call together a representative from each walk of Vancouver's community life, for the purpose of discussing taxation. A forerunner of this intention was contained in His Worship's inaugural address to the 1920 city council on Monday.
